A) 判断正误 阅读下面的材料, 判断下列句子是否符合短文内容。符合的填涂“T”, 不符合的填涂“F”。(T=True, F=False)

A man once had a dream about the Black Forest in Germany. In his dream he was walking in the forest when two men ran out and tried to throw him to the ground. He ran off as fast as he could, but they followed him. He reached a place where he saw two roads in front of him, one to the right and the other to the left. Which road should he take? He heard the two men behind him getting nearer, and at the same time he heard a voice in his ear. It told him to go to the right, and he did so. He ran on and soon came to a small hotel. He was received there kindly and given a room, and he was saved from the two men. That was the dream.

Twenty years later the man was really in the Black Forest, and as happened in the dream long ago, two men ran out and tried to throw him down. He ran off, and came to a place with two roads, like in the dream. He remembered the dream and took the road to the right. He soon reached a small hotel, was taken in, and also was safe. His dream of twenty years ago had saved his life.

Emojis (表情包) are a kind of special language. Pictures are used to put meaning across. They come from what people think about, like and care about. At a time when face-to-face conversations are harder to come by, many people are choosing to express their thoughts with emojis. WeChat, China's popular messaging app, has added funny new emojis: boring, awesome(666), let me see, sigh(叹气), hurt and broken. They have become a hot topic on Weibo, causing discussions about meanings behind these different faces.

Some net users think the new emojis can express a worker's day. Let's have a look. In the morning, the workers get up and go to work that is boring. During work, they chat with their workmates. How awesome! Well, it's time for lunch; let me see what delicious food other people are eating. In the afternoon, sigh time! Work is so hard, and life is so hard! What an interesting picture the new emojis draw! While some people still hope WeChat can continue to introduce new emojis to make online conversations more interesting.
