Dear Cindy,

Thanks for your e-mail. It's great to hear about your life in Beijing.

My family and I live in New York but now we are in Hawaii. My aunt lives here. We visit her every summer. Her house is near the beach so we go to the beach every day. But we don't always swim. Sometimes the water is very cold.

It's sunny today. Now my mom is taking a walk along the beach. My dad is fishing. He likes fishing a lot and he goes fishing every Saturday afternoon. My brother Jim isn't at the beach. He is in the house and he's watching a soccer game on TV. Jim loves doing sports. His favorite sport is soccer. And he never misses any soccer games on TV.

What about you? What do you usually do on your holidays?

Yours,
Emily

my storybook. After two stops, an old grandma gets on. There are many people on the bus, so she has no seat. I want to read my interesting book, so I don't give my seat to the grandma.

"Please take my seat, Grandma!" the girl with a broken leg next to me says.

At that time, I find the girl is only seven years old and she takes a big schoolbag. The grandma also finds this. "No, thank you. You're really a good girl!" she says.

My face turns red. Then I say, "Here is a seat for you, Grandma."

The grandma is very happy. She thanks me and takes my seat. At that time, I find that helping others is really a happy thing!
