C、阅读与回答问题，每小题均不超过 5 个单词。（共 5 小题，每小题 2 分，计 10 分）

Bill Gates' House

Bill Gates has a nice house on a hill by Lake Washington. Inside the house, there are seven bedrooms, twenty-four bathrooms, six kitchens and six fireplaces. It even has a theatre, a library, an exercise room and a swimming pool. You can say the house is very big, however, it doesn't look so big from outside, because a large part of it is in the hill.

The house is famous for many reasons. One reason is its large size, and another is its amazing electronic systems. Before a visitor goes into the house, he/she gets a chip(芯片) at the gate. The chip sends information about the visitor to the electronic systems in the house. When the visitor goes into the house, lights turn on automatically(自动地). When the visitor goes into a room, the temperature will change to make the visitor comfortable. When the visitor goes from one room to another, he/she can hear music all the way because there are many speakers under the wallpaper.

In 2006, the value of the house and the land was $125 million. Bill Gates has to pay a tax(税) of $991,000 for the house every year.

- 61. Where is Bill Gates' House ?
- 62. Does Bill Gates have many books in his house?
- 63. Why does the temperature in a room change when the visitor goes in?
- 64. What does a visitor get at the gate of the house?
- 65. What do you think of Bill Gates' house?
