At 10 p. m. on December 18th, while Ma Wenbo was sleeping, he suddenly smelt something was burning. He got off his bed and found the living room was on fire. He woke up his father at once and then his grandfather. His father took him and his grandfather out of the room as soon as possible. He was so worried that he forgot to take his phone with him. When they went downstairs, Mr. Ma thought that he should call the police and 119, so he ran back home to get it. But it was so dangerous that he almost lost his life.

While Wenbo rushed down, he did the following things:

He knocked the doors of the second floor and first floor. He shouted "Fire, fire. Go out of the rooms." to wake up the people in the building. They ran downstairs quickly. Finally he stopped a car in the street and asked the driver to call 119.

Luckily, no one was hurt in the accident. Later, a firefighter said the boy was so brave (勇敢的) that he helped others to run away and kept himself safe. It was a good example. Mr. Ma said that his son was much calmer than him. He was like a real man. Ma Wenbo said that he learned something about how to run away from a fire in school. Two young men and a young woman went to eat noodles at a small noodle house in Zhengzhou, Henan. All of them knew they had to pay 8 yuan for each bowl of noodles, but at last they paid 4,400 yuan. Do you know what happened?

The boss (老板) of the noodle house was a man named Sun Heli. He gave away mutton to the city cleaners every year. So people called him Brother Mutton. This year, he started serving noodles for 8 yuan a bowl. He says all the city cleaners and workers from the countryside or people who are over 65 can have them for only 5 yuan. If you are very poor, or you can't get enough money for them, you can pay only 3 yuan. If you are so poor that you can't spend so much money for food, you can eat as much as you want without paying anything.

On November 29th, three young people came into the restaurant and ordered three bowls of noodles. After eating, they paid by the phone. When Sun Heli found they paid much more than they should have, he told them they made a mistake. They said they wanted to do the good things with him. While Sun Heli asked their names, they left without telling him anything about themselves.

Sun Heli expected to know who they were, so he asked a newspaper reporter for help. He told the reporter such kind of things happened in his noodle house every day.
