Anger is a kind of feeling. Many things can make you angry. When your teacher gives you too much homework, when your team loses an important game, when a friend borrows your favorite thing and then breaks it, you may get really angry.

Usually, your body will tell you when you are angry. For example, you breathe faster, your face turns red, and you may want to break something or hit(打) someone, but sometimes, you hide(隐藏) your anger. For example, you may hide it in your heart. The problem is that if you do this, you may get a headache or your stomach may hurt.

In fact, it's not good to hide your anger, and it's normal for you to get angry sometimes. But anger must be let out in the right way, without hurting others or yourself.

When you get angry, you can talk about it with other people. It's helpful to talk about your anger with an adult, such as parents, a teacher, etc. When you talk about anger, those bad feelings can start to go away. Here are some other things you can do when you start to feel angry: talk to a good friend; count from 1 to 100; give someone a hug(拥抱); go for a bike ride; think about good things, etc.

Remember that how you act when you are angry can make everything better or worse. Don't let your anger control you.

- ()46. You may not get angry when ____.
- A. there is too much homework on this weekend
B. your favorite basketball team wins the game
C. a friend breaks your favorite thing
D. your parents don't let you watch TV
- ()47. ____ shows that you're not angry.

Tuesday, 1st September

I had mixed feelings today, nervous, worried, happy, excited... My heart went down when Miss Chan, our head teacher, said that Matthew and Beth, two students from England, would spend three months with us! I was worried that I had to speak English so much! But at the end of the school day, I was happier than I thought: the morning with them today was more enjoyable than I expected.

Today is the most unforgettable first day I have had! Matthew is fantastic! His English is clearer and easier to listen to than I thought. The other English student, Beth, is the most helpful girl I've ever met. There were lots of things to do on the first day. Beth offered to help Miss Chan put up all the notices. Of course, some of the credit (功劳) should also go to ME because I translated some of the notices for her. Miss Chan praised us!

We finished all the preparations 10 minutes earlier than expected, then Beth and I talked for a while, Matthew sang several English songs and did some stand-up comedy (单人喜剧表演) at the party. We all praised him. When the bell rang to end the first school day, none of us wanted to leave.

When I went back home, I had a little headache. I have probably spoken more English today than the whole of last year.

It was really a happy day! I hope our friendship can continue, even after they gone back to England!

C. expects to travel to England
D. likes the two English students

第三节 根据短文内容，从短文后的选项中选出能填入空白处的最佳选项。选项中有两项为多余选项。将所选答案涂到答题卡的相应位置上。(共5小题；每小题1分，满分5分)

Have you tried to run or walk for exercise and then given up? If you answer yes, you should try a new kind of exercise: aquatic (水中的) exercise. 56 More and more people are trying aquatic exercise.

57 Why? You weigh about 90% less in the pool. It is better than running or walking for your knees (膝盖). Water is about 1,000 times thicker and heavier than air. To move through the water, your body has to work four times as hard. 58

In fact, most people say they feel more relaxed (放松的) in water. They stop thinking about the things that make them worried. They feel their bodies are under control by themselves. 59

But what if you are afraid of water? No problem! There is nothing to worry about. 60 It doesn't require(需要) any special skills. You don't even need to know how to swim. Aquatic exercise is for everyone.

- A. Aquatic exercise is safe and easy to learn.
- B. As a result, you can burn more calories (卡路里).
- C. Aquatic exercise feels easier than exercising on land.
- D. The cool and quiet environment makes them feel good.
- E. Aquatic exercise is like exercise on land, but you do it in a swimming pool.
