Beijing Opera appeared in the Qing Dynasty. In 1790, many opera troupes(戏班) went to Beijing for performances to celebrate the birthday of Qianlong. This kind of unusual performance touched the hearts of the people deeply. While in Beijing, the troupes created a new kind of opera called Beijing Opera. It was on the basis of Anhui Opera by taking in the advantages of other operas.

Beijing Opera is quite unique in role shaping because it divides the roles into different kinds. They are sheng, dan, jing and chou which are quite different in many ways.

A popular song goes like this, "Foreigners call Jingxi Beijing Opera." In fact, Beijing Opera is different from opera. Opera tells the story and expresses the thoughts by singing instead of speaking. But Beijing Opera stresses(强调)chang, nian, zuo and da. Chang means singing, nian means musical spoken parts, zuo means dance movements and da means martial(武打)skills.

Mei Lanfang is an excellent performing artist of Beijing Opera in China. In 1930, he led an opera troupe to America and presented Beijing Opera before western people. Today, Beijing Opera has become the sign of Chinese culture. It is changing with the development of different musical styles.

The well-known "new great inventions" of modern China have made our daily lives more convenient.
High-speed trains

China created its first high-speed railway line in 2008. Since then, the number of passenger trips has grown by over 30 percent every year. By 2016, more than 5 billion trips had been taken on the high-speed trains. By 2020, one-fifth of the country's 150, 000-km railway network had been used by the high-speed trains. This network had linked more than 80 percent of major cities across China.

Mobile payment

Mobile payment is turning China into a "cashless society". Instead of paying by cash, customers now pay for their goods and some kinds of bills simply by typing a short password into the Alipay or WeChat Pay on their mobile phones.

Shared bikes

China has surprised the world with how quickly shared bikes are widely used. Nowadays, bike users can simply pick up or park the bike on the street through GPS and smart phone apps.

Online shopping

With around 751 million Internet users, China has been the world's largest and fastest-growing online shopping market. Because of lower costs and fewer licensing requirements(执照要求), it's easier for sellers to open an online shop in China. In 2016, more than 20 million jobs of rural areas were created, with over 8.1 million running their own online shops.

(D)

Are you the only child in the family? If so, you are the most important in your family. Parents are the closest people to you in the world. But a lot of middle school students have a problem. They feel they're not as close to their parents as before. They even don't think their parents are fair to them.

Some students complain that their parents often say a lot to them, but never listen to them. Some say their parents don't allow them to play computer games when other classmates are doing that. Others say when they're making phone calls to friends, their parents like to ask if they're speaking to a boy or a girl. These make them very unhappy. Some students even decide to leave home because they're afraid to tell their parents when they have done something wrong, especially when they do badly in exams. Then they usually think running away is the only choice. But they don't know running away may bring them some more problems.

Here are some suggestions for you to solve your problems.

- ◆ Find a good chance to talk with your parents. Don't be afraid to tell them your feelings.
  - ◆ Get help from others like good friends or teachers.
  - ◆ Keep a diary to help you understand more about yourself and your feelings.
  - ◆ Show your parents you're growing up. Then they'll feel you're no longer a small child.
- If you follow the advice, you'll have a happy life and never think of running away.

66. According to the passage, _____ are the closest people to an only child.
A. teachers B. classmates C. parents D. friends
67. Which of the following is TRUE?
A. Parents don't love their children now.
B. Middle school students don't have any problems.
C. Some students don't think their parents are fair to them.
D. Teachers don't believe their students.

68. What should we do if we have problems with our parents?
 A. Talk with our parents. B. Quarrel with our parents.
 C. Leave our parents. D. Say nothing to our parents.
69. Why does the writer advise us to keep a diary?
 A. Because it's our homework. B. Because it can help us practice writing.
 C. Because it can help us understand ourselves better. D. Because it is funny.
70. What does the passage mainly talk about?
 A. Middle school students' friends. B. Middle school students' hobbies.
 C. Middle school students' problems. D. Middle school students' school life.

(E)

阅读短文, 根据短文内容, 从短文后的选项选出能填入空白处的最佳选项, 完成 71-75 小题(选项中有一项是多余的)。

Have you heard about "Survival (生存) Holidays"? 71 Now about 1,100 companies are allowed to take children into the outdoors without their parents.

72 It is because they think being close to nature is good for children. Many children in big cities spend all time watching TV and playing computer games. "Survival Holidays" gives them an important change.

73 Maybe it is. Children need more free time to play. They need to be left on their own, without adults troubling them. Parents care too much about their children. They like to see the children being busy with activities under the control of adults, but children don't know what to do when they are in danger.
74

Many people think the survival activities are good for children. Even years later, they will still remember what they have learned. Some have learned to stay cool in different times. Some have learned how to keep safe. 75 All these skills will help them a lot in their lives.

- A. Is "Survival Holidays" a wonderful idea?
 B. Others have learned how to work in a team.
 C. "Survival Holidays" is for children to go into the lonely place for exciting activities.
 D. Children will be scared.
 E. Even something like crossing a small river or falling down seems very terrible to them.
 F. Why do people like "Survival Holidays"?
