Do you know China's National Teeth-Loving Day? It is on September 20. How important are teeth to our life? Do you know the life cycle of teeth in your mouth? What should we do to keep our teeth healthy?

Teeth are important to everyone. Healthy teeth help us eat food to let us grow. They help us speak clearly, too.

Children under 6 have 20 baby teeth. From 6 to 13, people lose their baby teeth one by one. Then permanent teeth begin to grow. An adult usually has 28 to 32 permanent teeth. Between the ages of 17 to 25, some people grow wisdom teeth. In fact, wisdom teeth don't make you smarter. They look like a symbol of being grown ups. How can we keep our teeth strong and healthy? Take a look!

Do's

Brush your teeth at least twice a day: in the morning and before bedtime.

Brush for at least two or three minutes every time.

Brush up and down on every tooth.

Get a new toothbrush every three months.

Don'ts

Don't eat too much candy or sweet food.

Don't eat hard food. That can hurt your teeth.
