Several months ago, Chinese COVID-19 vaccines(疫苗) were put to use widely. Our government offers free vaccines to Chinese people. Here is some information you need to know.

How is the vaccine given?

It is given by injection(注射). There are several ways to get injected. For the most common way, you are supposed to get it twice. After the first injection, you have to get the second one.

Is the vaccine bad for human bodies?

Some people are afraid that the vaccines are dangerous and may make them sick. In fact the vaccines have been tested for a long time. They won't cause any disease. Instead, they can protect our bodies from being hurt.

Who is suitable?

Medical researches have shown that Chinese vaccines are suitable for most people. And people aged 18 to 59 would be the first ones to get injection. Our government expects people over 60 who are in good health to get injected as well. You'd better ask doctors for advice at first.

Should we still wear a face mask?

Yes. It takes a few weeks for the body to build the ability to fight COVID-19 after injection. Sometimes the vaccines might not work well in the body. So it's best to keep wearing face masks in public and wash your hands often.

26. _____ can get the COVID-19 vaccines first in China.

- A.People of all ages B.People aged 3 to 17
C.People aged 18 to 59 D.People aged 60 and above

27.The underlined word "disease" means _____ in the passage.

28.From the passage, we can know that the vaccines _____.

- A.will make people sick B.can protect people from being hurt
C.can only be given in two ways D.are very expensive

29.People should still wear masks after injection because _____.

- A.their bodies need time to build the ability B.the masks can make them more beautiful
C.they may catch a cold more easily D.the masks help the vaccines to work

30.This passage mainly talks about _____.

- A.physical health B.face masks C.doctors' advice D.vaccine injection

If you looked into his messy yard in Austin, Texas, you might think Vince Hahnemann had forgotten to take out the rubbish for a few years. In fact, Vince has been collecting old kitchen things, bottles, street signs, bicycles, baskets, toilets and other objects people unwanted since 1989 - all for his "Cathedral (教堂) of Junk". The cathedral-like structure (教堂形建筑物), which began with a few pieces of rubbish, grew to be over two floors high and weighed over 60 tons:

For many years, Vince's Cathedral of Junk was an amazing work of art. Inside the structure, there were certain areas that visitors could walk through. Art lovers would perhaps wonder how all these objects had been brought together to make a piece of art. Old golf clubs, bike wheels and scarves were on the ceilings(天花板). Things of similar colors were grouped together, creating colorful walls.

Tourists and fans visited the Cathedral of Junk every day. But Vince said he built it just for fun. He loved the fact that other people enjoyed it too. Tourists could bring kids and picnics. He even allowed people to get married or have parties there. Some people liked to bring their own rubbish to add to the Cathedral and think that was cool. But Vince didn't agree. He must find something interesting.

Some people worried that the building was not safe. In June 2010, Vince finally decided to break the Cathedral down into smaller works of art. Visiting Vince's yard is still worth (值得的) the trip, though.

31. Which of the following describes the Cathedral of Junk?

- A. It was six floors high. B. There were CDs on its ceilings.
C. Vince started to build it in 2010. D. It was full of objects people unwanted.

32. What could visitors do in the Cathedral of Junk?

- ①Bring dogs. ②Have parties. ③Get married. ④Paint walls.

- A. ①② B. ②③ C. ①④ D. ③④

33. What does the underlined word "that" refer to (指的是)?

- A. Building another Cathedral. B. Adding more to the Cathedral.
C. Breaking down the Cathedral. D. Visiting the Cathedral every day.

34. What is the writer's opinion about the Cathedral of Junk?

- A. It was messy. B. It was not safe.
C. It is not worth the trip. D. It was an amazing work of art.

35. What can we learn from the text?
- A. Life is short but art is long.
- B. Everyone can go on a trip at any time.
- C. It's important to protect the environment.
- D. One man's junk is another man's treasure.

Little Habits Make a Big Difference

Everything around us is changing at amazing speed, it seems---but some things will always remain the same. 36 Some of our daily habits have the power to always give us happiness and lead toward success. Here are some little habits that can make a big difference:

- 37 Many studies have linked early rising with success. An early morning wake-up carries benefits including better planning and anticipation(预料)of problems, and more time to the things that make you happy.
- Happiness comes to those who are curious. 38 As long as you live, there will always be something to learn, and as long as you follow your heart and your passions, you won't miss out on learning.
- Believe in yourself and all that you are. 39 Confidence is the key to success—the thing that lets you look at the past without regret, stay grounded in the present, and prepare for the future without fear.
- A day well spent gets you a good night sleep. Enough sleep makes you feel healthier and happier, and it's more than lifting up your or removing exhaustion(疲惫). Adequate sleep is a key part of your health and inner happiness. 40

It doesn't take a huge effort to make a significant change in your life---using one or two tiny habits may be all you need. Get started today and you'll soon be experiencing the rewards.

根据材料内容, 从下面五个选项中选出能填入文中空缺处的最佳选项, 使短文意思通顺、内容完整。

- A. That's why habits are so powerful.
- B. Nothing will ever make you happier than having faith in yourself.
- C. Early to rise makes you healthy, wealthy, and wise.
- D. When you rest better, you can live better and achieve more happiness.
- E. There is no stage in life when we can't be learning something valuable

36. _____ 37. _____ 38. _____ 39. _____ 40. _____

三、完型填空 (15 小题, 每小题 1 分, 共 15 分)

先通读短文, 掌握其大意, 然后从 A、B、C、D 四个选项中选出一个可以填入相应空白处的最佳答案。

I was about ten. When I was doing the dishes, my mum walked up to me and said, "I'm sorry, dear. Dinner was 41 again."

I was surprised. "What? No, it was great. I 42 it."

"Really?" she said. "You always ate 43, never saying anything. You've never told me that you liked my cooking, 44 I thought you disliked it."

"No, I really enjoyed it. You're the best cook," I said.

"Then you should 45 me that," she said. "When someone does 46 nice for you, you should thank that person. If you don't, he might think you are not 47 and stop doing those nice things." From then on I 48 said "Thank you" to others. It soon became a habit (习惯) and that was when 49 started happening. People liked me more, talked to me more and 50 with me more.

In my first year of high school, during the final week, I came home and 51 a kind of sweet snack (点心) on the table. "Thanks, Mum," I said.

"That isn't from me," Mum said. "It's from your bus driver." Guess what? He had been driving that bus for years, and I was the 52 person to ever thank him as we 53. Those two simple words made such a big 54 that he went out of his way to tell my mum and give me a present.

That's the power of appreciation (感激). When you 55 it, all is right in the world, but when it's missing, life is empty. My mum has taught me many things, but taking two seconds to say "Thank you" every time, in any situation, was the best.
