Having a picnic is one of the great pleased activities in summer. There are some things you should think about.

Packing(打包) your foods

Before you set off, check if your food box is shut closely. If it's a hot summer's day, then a cool box will be useful for keeping your picnic foods.

Don't forget to pack cups or bottles for drinks.

Food safety

You should keep things like meat pies, fish and dairy dishes in cold boxes. You'd better keep your foods on ice for as long as possible before you eat them. Finally, carry some hand sanitizers(洗手液). Make sure that everyone's hands are clean before they touch the foods.

Delicious snacks

After you have prepared the main dishes, it's time to pack some snacks. Chips, chocolate candies and cookies are considered great picnic snacks. They are very delicious, of course, but be careful not to eat too many of them.

55. What is the article mainly about?
  - A. Making a picnic.
  - B. Enjoying a picnic.
  - C. Preparing a picnic.

B

Do you think only humans are crazy about electronic products? You are wrong. 12 zoos in the United States and Canada have carried out(实施) a programme called Apps for Apes(大猩猩). It has found that the apes are also interested in playing iPads.

“We find that, similar to people, the apes like touching the screen and watching short videos,” said Richard Zimmerman, a manager of the programme.

The apes in these zoos can play iPads twice a week. Every time, they spend from 15 minutes to half an hour using different apps in iPads. They are most interested in apps for children, such as drawing, music and memory games.

Zimmerman said, “It’s like when we’re showing pop-up books(立体书) to children. The apes are among the most intelligent(智能的) animals, they are as clever as young children.”

The workers in the zoo are also studying how communication apps can help the apes better. “We find that an ape has a toothache. He would be able to touch a picture of a tooth on the iPad and communicate in that way,” said Zimmerman.

The programme wants to make people pay attention to the living problems of apes in the wild. The apes are in danger because people cut down too many forests.

56. How many times can the apes play iPads in a week?
 A. Two times.                      B. Three times.                      C. Four times.
57. Which of the following apps can make apes most interested in?
 A. Working.                      B. Shopping.                      C. Painting.
58. What can we learn about apes from the article?
 A. Apes can make pop-up books.
 B. Apes are as smart as young children.
 C. Apes use apps to protect themselves.
59. How does the ape communicate when it has a toothache?
 A. By touching the picture.      B. By telling the doctor.                      C. By showing its nose.
60. Where is this article most probably from?
 A. A magazine about children.
 B. A magazine about animals.
 C. A magazine about hobbies.

C

One day, I picked up my daughter Lingling from school and went to the supermarket for a few things. I was hoping to be in and out quickly.

I found a short line with just one person in front of me. It was an old woman, and she was paying for her things with only coins. After a long day at work, I thought the woman was very terrible.

But then I watched a young salesman. He helped her count her coins, ever so kindly taking them from her shaking hands. I listened to him repeatedly say to her: “Yes, ma’am(女士).” When she asked if she had enough money to buy a bag, he told her she did. Then he walked over two lines and got one for her. This salesman wasn’t angry at all. He was patient and kind.

As I was watching him, I saw Lingling was too. I realised my daughter was learning an important lesson from a stranger.

When the woman was finished, the salesman began ringing up my things and thanked me for my patience(耐心). I thanked him too. I found the manager and told him about the salesman’s kindness and patience.

Then we left the supermarket with a full basket, but also with a heart full of thankfulness for such an important lesson.

61. How was the old woman in the writer’s eyes at first?
 A. Kind.                      B. Lazy.                      C. Awful.                      D. Humorous.
62. From Paragraph 3, which of the following is TRUE?
 A. The old woman lived a comfortable life.
 B. The old woman might not have much money.
 C. The old woman was a friend of the salesman’s.
 D. The old woman didn’t want to pay for her things.

63. Who gave the writer an important lesson?
A. The old woman.    B. The salesman.    C. The manager.    D. The writer's daughter.
64. What does the underlined phrase "ringing up" probably mean in Chinese?
A. 列清单    B. 打电话    C. 寄放    D. 收银
65. What's the best title for the article?
A. An Old Woman
B. A Kind Stranger
C. Teaching a Lesson in Line
D. Shopping in the Supermarket

第二节（共5小题；每小题2分，满分10分）

根据短文内容，从短文前方框内的选项中选出能填入空白处的最佳选项，并在答题卡上将该项涂黑。

- A. This is the popular Panda Bus in China.
B. So, it's safe and comfortable to take the bus.
C. You can also find something cool when you get on it.
D. It can stop at traffic lights and park at the stop all by itself.
E. Another surprise is the small computer on the back of each seat.

Look at the bus. It's a little different from other buses. It's black and white, and has two black "ears" on the top, just like a panda. The lights of the bus are its "eyes". 66 The bus is 12 meters long and there are 23 seats on it.

The Panda Bus is popular not just because of its cute looks. 67 First of all, it's very easy for people to buy tickets. They don't need to use their phones or bus cards like before. All they need are their hands. They can buy tickets just by scanning(扫描) their hands. In this way, people can also buy drinks and food on the bus. There is a vending machine(自动贩卖机) in the middle of the bus. 68 People can choose to watch a movie on the computer. How interesting! There are also some cameras on the bus. If someone steals(偷) things, these cameras will catch them. 69

Most importantly, nobody drives the bus. 70 It only needs someone to watch all the way just in case(以防万一). And it usually runs a little slower than other buses.

By the end of 2021, there had been over ten cities in China having the Panda Bus, such as Tianjin, Shanghai and Jinan. Would you like to take such a bus to go to school?
