- Mickey is a cheerful boy. No one can make him angry. And he never says anything bad about others. Even his teachers think he is so special.
- One afternoon, Mickey invited (邀请) his favorite teacher, Mr Anthony, to have a cup of tea at home. On his bedroom door, the teacher was surprised to see hundreds of small color cards. "Some friends at school think I never think badly of anyone," Mickey smiled, "but that's not true at all. In fact, I was easier to get angry than all the other kids years ago. Then my parents helped me start a card collection. With each little card I put on the door, I can easily forget the bad thing." It was true. On these cards, Mr Anthony could read "fool", "pain", "anger" and some other bad things. That day they talked about many other things, but Mr Anthony never forgot the small color cards on the door. From then on, Mr Anthony began his own card collection. He also encouraged his other students to do so.
51. Why do Mickey's teachers think he is so special?
A. Because he can get on well with his teachers.
B. Because he has a card collection.
C. Because he always works hard.
D. Because no one can make him angry.

C. He was a cheerful boy. D. He was very smart.
54. Why did Mickey put the small color cards on his bedroom door?
A. Because in this way, he could forget the bad things easily.
B. Because he wanted to make his room more beautiful.
C. Because he liked to collect beautiful cards.
D. Because he wanted to show his beautiful cards to his friends.
55. What's the best title of this passage?
A. Cards Collection. B. A Special Boy.
C. A Good Way to Forget the Bad Things. D. Let's Collect Cards.

D

Sometimes we must be careful with some animals such as dogs, because they might bite (咬) us. Pet dogs once bit Liu Yunkang, a farmer from Sichuan, three times. Not long ago, he got another new bite. But this time, it was different.

"I was lucky that a panda bit me," said the 60-year-old farmer. On Friday afternoon, a wild panda came down from the mountain. "It walked about 200 meters before crossing a river

- to reach the mountain on the other side," said another farmer named Yang Guoxiang, who was the first one to see the panda while planting potatoes. Because the panda was dirty and couldn't walk fast, the farmers thought it might be sick and decided to help it.
- The panda became afraid and it suddenly bit Liu's left leg when the farmers were getting too close. Then it ran into the mountains.
- The panda's two teeth made the bite and it wasn't serious. But in fact, pandas are very strong when they get angry. They can even kill sheep. The farmers thought that the young panda's mother drove (迫使) it away to live by itself. It did not come down to look for food because there were many bamboo trees in the mountains.
56. How many times did dogs bite Liu Yunkang?
A. Once. B. Twice. C. Three times. D. Four times.
57. How did Liu Yunkang feel after the panda bit him?
A. Sad. B. Interested. C. Lucky. D. Afraid.
58. What was Yang Guoxiang doing when he saw the panda?
A. Planting potatoes. B. Walking down the mountain.
C. Planting trees. D. Talking with other farmers.
59. What does the underlined word "serious" in the fourth paragraph mean?
A. 重要的. B. 大的. C. 错误的. D. 严重的.
60. What can we know from the passage?
A. Pandas sometimes are dangerous.
B. Nearly all animals might bite people at times.
C. Wild pandas like to look for food alone.
D. Young wild pandas are used to (习惯于) living with their mothers.
