Few(很少) of us really understand(理解) that a father's love is like a mountain. But in the US movie I Am Sam, I see this kind of love and understanding.

Sam Dawson has a 7-year-old daughter named Lucy, because Sam has mental disability(精神疾病), people think he can't look after Lucy and they send(发送) her away to another family.

But Sam takes on many part-time jobs and moves closer to see Lucy. One night, Lucy goes to Sam's house. She tells him that she doesn't want to go back, but Sam takes her back to her new family's home anyway. Sam's act wins Lucy's heart at last.

This movie tells us what parents' love is. Sam knows how to love. He always tries his hardest to bring up Lucy right. He will do all the time.

Fathers play important roles in our mental development. US writer Fanny Fern once said, "To kids, the name of father is another name for love."

C. Health magazines. D. Club ads.

C

Seeing is believing(相信), but if our eyes don't work, how can we see to believe?

Today more and more kids wear glasses before going to middle school. Because they spend too much time watching TV or playing computer games. But we must do something to protect(保护) our eyes because they are important for us to see the world.

Love your eyes. Every day, when we open our eyes, we can see the lovely friends and parents, beautiful flowers and green trees. Without them, there is only darkness. How important our eyes are!

Remember to rest your eyes. When you use the computer for an hour or two, it is time to stop to have a 30-minute rest. At school, you need to do eye exercises. In these ways, your eyes will feel relaxed.

Have good habits. When doing homework and reading, it is important to keep a distance(距离) of 30 cm between your eyes and books. We can't rub(摩擦) our eyes with dirty hands. Eat something healthy for eyes, such as carrots, fish and eggs.
