A British girl, Taryn Everdeen, has just finished writing a novel (小说) with her favorite writer, Carolyn Meyer, even though (尽管) she is 66 years younger than her.

Taryn was only 15 years old, when she first wrote a fan letter to an 81-year-old Carolyn Meyer, to give thanks for her historical novels.

"Carolyn was one of my favorite writers. I grew up reading her books. When I was nine or ten, I would listen to her stories every night...That made me fall in love with history," says Taryn.

Taryn, who is from Norwich, England, was then excited when Carolyn wrote back and suggested writing a novel together.

Carolyn is an American writer who writes novels for children and young people. She has published (出版) over 60 children books, but she has never wanted to work with another writer until she got Taryn's letter.

Three years ago, after Taryn wrote to her, Carolyn invited the young girl to stay with her in the US, so they could write a novel together. They decided to write a time--traveling story. They sent ideas to each other by email. Carolyn also visited Taryn last year, and Taryn flew to the US over the summer, after she finished her school exams.

They now have a first draft (初稿) of "Mirror of Time". They decide to give it to some publishers and hope they will be interested in it.

"This is my first try at writing a novel. We have been working on it for three years. It's amazing," says Taryn. And I have never met anyone like her. "She seems much younger than her age. I think she is a really powerful role model (有影响力的榜样). She's my teacher, and my work partner, but I see her as a friend more than anything else."

Taryn, now 18 years old, returns from the USA this week. She wants to have a gap (间隔, 空白) year before starting university next year.

"We worked hard, but we did other things together, too. While I was there, we went to a few theatre shows, and we went on a journey to Taos, staying in a hotel overnight there."

"She's very open, and I can talk to her about pretty much all the things I talk to my other friends about," she says.

"She has taught me how to be a better writer. "

On a hot summer afternoon, Mike heard Jim and Jack said they were going for a swim in the river. After school, Mike chatted with them at a neighborhood shop, and knew that they didn't know how to swim but they wanted to have a try. Then he followed them down to the river and asked them not to go in. But they didn't listen to him and jumped into the river. Soon the water took them away.

Without thinking twice, Mike jumped into a nearby boat and then paddled (划) with his own hands to reach the two boys. First, Mike got Jim with one hand and left him lying on the boat. Then, he paddled to Jack and jumped into the water to take him back. He said, "It was hard, but go his arms on one side of the boat just like teachers taught us at school."

When the policeman got to the river, Mike just took the two boys to the ground. The policeman thanked him and asked, "Why did you want to save them alone? It's dangerous for a child like you to do so." Mike said, "To become a lifeguard (救生员) is my dream. But my parents dissent from me. They think I am not strong enough for the job, and it is dangerous to work as a lifeguard."

At last, the policeman said, "You are a young hero! It's nice of a child to have a big dream. But it is also important to know that one should protect himself first. Next time you should call for our help first. Always tell your teachers or parents when you notice something dangerous may happen, and you shouldn't do anything dangerous alone."

六、阅读填空 (共 20 小题,每小题 1 分,满分 20 分)

阅读下面短文,分析所读内容,在文章小题的空格里填入一个最恰当的单词。注意: 每个空格只填 1 个单词

There are always arguments (争论) on which animal we should keep as a pet. A cat or a dog? I own two cats called Kitty and Lily in my house and I would like to tell you why I think it is amazing to keep a cat as a pet.

First of all, dogs may get out of the door and never come back, but cats are sure to come back home at night. Believe it or not! Cats will remember how much they like you even after a long time.

Second, cats have interesting personalities(个性). Some just want to lie there all afternoon and do nothing. My Kitty is just like that. Sometimes, when she is enjoying the sunshine, if I throw a ball to her, she won't stand up or try to get it. She won't even open her eyes to look at me. Others, like me Lily, likes running and jumping around the house without stopping all the time. Some cats enjoy being with people. Others don't want to do the same. I am lucky to have my two cats both loving to be with me.

Third, do you remember Tom and Jerry? Your cat may have its own Jerry to run after. If you are also afraid of other small things like bugs(虫子), and you don't want them to run around your house, don't worry. Just leave them to your cat because it can help you get them out of your house.

What's more, cats have big and watery eyes, round faces, long and soft fur, small and cute paws... You all know how lovely cats are.

That's why I become a cat person. Do you want to keep a cat as a pet?
