Passage 2

When I was young, I liked to play jokes on people I knew, especially on my parents and friends. One day my mother was cooking and I was playing with my younger brother Tony. Suddenly I ran to my mother and said: “Tony fell from the open window!” She was very worried and ran out of the kitchen. Then I said: “Don’t worry, I’m just joking.” My mother shouted at me, “If you do it again, I’ll hit you.”

Another day I went swimming with my friends in the sea. I wanted to play a joke on them. In the beginning I swam fast and I called out “Help!” All my friends came to help me. However, they found that I was joking. But half an hour later I wasn’t joking. I was so fast, soon I got tired and couldn’t swim on in water. I tried my best to call my friends for help, but this time nobody came to help me.

In the end they found I was telling the truth. They came and saved my life. They took me to the hospital. This is the best lesson in my life. From then on I haven’t joked on anyone.

 C. one can play jokes only on people he knows
 D. if someone always tells lies, others won’t trust (信任) him

Passage 3

I felt very sad because I was not able to get the ticket to the film Hero last Friday. I learned from the newspaper that tickets could be bought at the cinema box office in Richland Hills any day between 10:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m. Since I work from 9:00 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. , the only time I could go to the cinema is during my 45 minutes' lunchtime. It is a pity that the cinema is on the other side of the town and the bus service between my company and Richland Hills is not very good. But if you are lucky, you can make the round trip in 45 minutes.

Last Monday, I stood at the bus stop for 15 minutes waiting for a bus. By the time I saw one come round the corner, there was not enough time left to make the trip, so I had to go back. The same thing happened on Tuesday, and again on Wednesday. On Thursday my luck changed. I got on a bus right away and arrived at the cinema in twenty minutes. But when I got there, I found a long line of people at the box office. I heard one man said he had been waiting in line for over an hour. I found I would not have enough time to wait in line. I caught the next bus and went back across the town.

By Friday I understood my only hope was to make the trip by car. It was expensive, but I felt it would be worth it to see the film. The trip by car only took 10 minutes, but it felt like an hour to me. When I reached the cinema, I was happy to see that nobody was waiting in line. But I quickly found out that it was because they had already sold out all the tickets.

41. It seemed that the writer of the story works as a _____.
A. worker B. doctor C. farmer D. clerk
42. The writer tried to go to the cinema every day, but really got there _____.
A. five times B. three times C. four times D. twice
43. We can infer from the underlined sentence that the writer was _____.
A. worried B. sorry C. surprised D. pleased
44. In the end the writer got _____ ticket(s).
A. one B. two C. three D. no
45. When the writer reached the cinema, he was happy because _____.
A. he understood B. he felt it would be worth it to see the film
C. the trip by car only took 10 minutes D. he saw that nobody was waiting in line

What is "health"? It means that we have healthy bodies, healthy hobbies and healthy life. It is easy for me to answer what I usually do to keep healthy. I usually read books or newspapers, and listen to music like English country songs.

Do you really want to keep healthy? Here are some suggestions (建议). First, you should go to bed and get up early so you can have a good sleep during the night and listen to the teacher attentively (专心地) during the day. Second, you'd better take part in sports, especially ball games, like basketball, football and table tennis. Doing these sports can make you strong. Third, don't watch too many TV programs except news, don't play computer games for a long time. It's bad for your eyes and it may make you lazy (懒惰的). Fourth, eat less but healthier food. Why don't you eat noodles and rice instead of hamburgers and fried chips? Why don't you drink water and milk instead of coffee and coke? Finally, you should always be happy. The secret (秘密) is to do something good for others.

I hope you can keep healthy and enjoy your life.
