(A)

One day a man went to the beach on a horse. There he picked a lot of coconuts(椰子) from the trees. Then he wanted his horse to carry the heavy fruit home in a short time because he wanted to get to a market meeting in his neighborhood in the afternoon.

On the way home he met a little boy. He decided to ask the boy a question. "Hi, my boy," he smiled and said. "Do you know how long it'll take my horse to reach my home with these coconuts?" "If you go slowly," the boy said, looking at the fruit on the horse, "you'll arrive very soon; but if you go fast, it'll take you all day."

The man could not believe what the boy said, so he hurried his horse. But the coconuts kept falling off and he had to stop to pick them up several times. Then he hurried his horse faster to make up for the lost time, but the coconuts started falling off again.

He had to do the same thing many times. In the end, it was night when he reached home.

(C)

How do you feel about your looks? Is it important to have a beautiful face? Are there other things that can make a person special? The way you look is special. Do you know what I mean by that? We all look a little different. Some of us are tall. Some of us are fat. The point is, all of us have our own look — our own face.

Sometimes, we might feel bad about looking different. We might feel like we look ugly(难看的) or strange. But our differences are what make us special.

I recently watched a speech by a man named Robert Hoge. He was born with a strange-looking face. His mother always worried that he would face many difficulties in life. But what Hoge did changed his mother's mind little by little(逐渐地). Strangers would stare at(盯着看) him or even make fun of him. But he didn't care at all. He decided to accept his face and feel confident(自信的) in himself. He has made a decision to live an amazing life.

It's hard when you feel like you don't look "normal" or "perfect". But the truth is, no one is perfect. The important thing to remember is that you are special, no matter what you look like.

根据短文内容, 判断下列各句正(T)、误(F)。(5分)

- () 76. According to the writer, all of us look a little different.
- () 77. The writer recently watched a speech by Robert Hoge's mother.
- () 78. Hoge's mother used to worry that he would face many difficulties in life.
- () 79. When strangers made fun of him, Hoge lost his confidence.
- () 80. The writer tries to tell us that we are special no matter what we look like.

(D)

 - C. After that, I learned English harder and harder
 - D. Listen to the teacher carefully
 - E. First, I think an interest in English is very important

(E)

Eight-year-old Maya and her parents were on vacation. They were traveling in the Appalachian Mountains. The Appalachians are the longest group of mountains in eastern North America. Maya and her parents did not take the trip by car but on foot. They walked along the road called the Appalachian Trail. It is 3,505 kilometers long and goes from one end of the Appalachians to the other!

Maya and her family started the trip near their home in Maryland. Maya was born in Maryland, and she had never left her state before, so she felt so excited about this long trip.

Every evening, Maya and her family would make a fire. She loved that! She also enjoyed sleeping in a tent each night. Maya wanted to remember everything that happened on her vacation. Whenever she came across a new animal, she would draw a picture of it in her diary. But it was usually not easy to do this. Maya learned that she had to be quiet if she wanted the animals to stay. She drew trees and flowers in her diary, too. She thought that flowers were easier to draw than animals. They didn't run away!

根据短文内容, 回答下列问题。(10分)

86. What did Maya and her parents do on their vacation?

87. How long is the Appalachian Trail?

88. How did Maya feel about the trip?

89. Where did Maya sleep at night during the trip?

90. Why did Maya think flowers were easier to draw?
