Should kids have smartphones? It's a question that many parents are thinking about. About two-thirds of parents worry that their children are getting too much screen time. They also worry that their children will lose the ability (能力) to communicate with others in real life.

DuBravac has two sons. They are Gavin and Ryan. The boys used smartphones very often. DuBravac found that they spent too much time on their smartphones and did not communicate with the family. So he took away the kids' phones.

DuBravac thought his sons became more creative when they were not using their smartphones. He felt happy about that. However, the boys were not. They talked to their dad about their ideas. They both said they understood why their dad didn't allow them to have phones, but he didn't understand the whole thing.

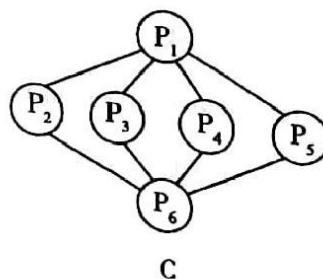

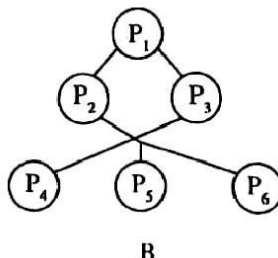

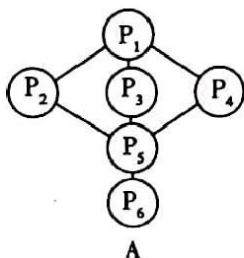

"I think he just sees the problem of using a phone, but I don't think he knows what we are missing without having a phone," Gavin said.

Gavin and Ryan said they might lose contact (联系) with friends because they were not able to quickly reply to their messages. They said homework would be easier if they used smartphones. And they were also afraid that they wouldn't be able to quickly communicate with their parents in case of an emergency (在紧急情况下).

So, it is probably more important to teach children how to use smartphones in a healthy way, instead of simply taking them away.

根据短文内容, 选择最佳答案。

33. How did DuBravac feel about the result of taking away his kids' phones?
- A. Worried. B. Happy. C. Sorry.
34. What's Paragraph 5 mainly about?
- A. Why Gavin and Ryan thought they needed to have phones.
B. What Gavin and Ryan needed to do without having phones.
C. What Gavin and Ryan were interested in doing with phones.
35. Which of the following best shows the structure of the passage? (P = Paragraph)

36. What is the best title for the passage?
- A. Kids Should Stop Using Phones
 - B. Kids Should Learn to Use Phones Properly
 - C. Kids Need Phones More Than Their Parents

C

A number of students are so busy doing their homework that they can't help out with housework. So many parents want to know if they should give their children chores. 37

First, doing chores helps children learn to be independent. Parents can't stay by their children's side all the time. 38 And these skills will help them be ready for the day when they go to college or take care of their own houses.

39 When children finish a chore, they will not only take pride in(为……感到自豪)it but also have confidence in doing things well.

Third, doing chores makes it possible for children to develop good relationships with their family, friends and partners. Doing chores together with family can make children care for their family more. And they begin to learn their duty in a family or a group. 40 They will know that if they work together as a team, they'll finished things quicker and better.

Should children do chores? Yes! And it should be on the top of the list. Now, my friends, are you ready to help?

根据短文内容,从下列选项中选出能填入文中空白处的最佳选项。选项中有一项为多余选项。

- A. That helps them build team spirit.
- B. What chores should children do?
- C. Second, doing chores helps children build self-confidence.
- D. There's no need to worry because chores are good for children.
- E. Children need to learn the necessary life skills to be independent.

The Shetland Islands(设得兰群岛) are a group of islands off the north coast of Scotland.

Before I visited Shetland, I only knew it was the home of Fair Isle knitting(费尔岛编织). Now I find 41 is probably the most unforgettable place for me. I 42 (be) to many islands before, but it is the most special.

Although there are about 100 islands, only 15 of them are inhabited(有人居住的). In winter, there are less than six hours of daylight, and 43 summer there are less than six hours of darkness.

In December 2020, my friends and I arrived in Scotland and then took a ship to one of the islands. The wind was 44 strong that we had a terrible journey in the sea. But I still enjoyed it, because travelling itself was about trying different things. Our guide told us that people had to tie their car to the big rock so that they wouldn't be blown away in winter. It sounds 45 (believable) but it's true.

People there could not be much nicer. At the hotel where we stayed, the owner always 46 (prepare) a big breakfast for us—bread, eggs, salad, fruit and so on.

My friends and I 47 (visit) the Shetland Islands again when we have a long vacation.

52. _____ 53. _____ 54. _____ 55. _____

五、阅读表达(共5小题,计10分)

During the National Day holiday, I finally realized my dream of visiting Beijing. Visitors to Beijing can see many well-known places of interest, such as the Summer Palace, the Palace

Museum, the Great Wall and so on.

My family and I could only stay in Beijing for six days, so we had to choose the places we wanted to visit wisely (明智地). For me, it's necessary to visit the Palace Museum. I must go there. The Palace Museum, also known as the Forbidden City, lies in the center. Emperors of the Ming and Qing dynasties once lived there. With its red walls and yellow roofs (屋顶), the royal (王室的) buildings stand out all the time.

We also visited the Great Wall, one of the Eight Wonders of the World. It lies in the north of Beijing. The Great Wall was built to protect the whole city from the attackers (进攻者) from the north. The Great Wall is said to be the longest wall in the world and one of the most famous buildings in China. It would be a pity if we didn't visit it.

In the past seventy years, China has made great progress. Through forty-four years of reforming and opening up (改革开放), China has become much stronger. It is now the world's second largest economy (经济体). The journey was really an unforgettable experience in my life!

根据短文内容,回答下面问题。

56. When did the writer have a trip to Beijing?

57. Why did the writer and his family have to choose the places they wanted to visit wisely?

58. What is one of the Eight Wonders of the World according to the passage?

59. Does the writer like his journey to Beijing?

60. What does the writer think of China?
