Fairy tales (童话) may not be real, but you can visit a village like a fairy-tale setting (场景).

Giethoorn (羊角村) lies in the north of the Netherlands (荷兰). The view of this water village is amazing. Many visitors even think it's too beautiful to be real.

The village has another name --- the "Venice (威尼斯) of Netherlands." There're no roads and people get around in a boat. If they have a car, they have to park it outside the village. Wooden bridges connect homes and stores, but some houses can only be reached by water. That's why each family in the village has a boat.

Giethoorn is a quiet village with about 2,600 people. You can't find noisy cars or other engines in it. The loudest sound you can hear is the quacking (嘎嘎声) of ducks or the singing of other birds.

The quietness of the village doesn't mean it's not popular with tourists. They come to enjoy delicious meals at the waterside restaurants and to take boat rides. What do you think of this village? Will you visit it if you can?

When you are learning English, you find it not clever to put an English sentence, word for word, into your own language. Take the sentence "How do you do?" as an example. If you look up each word in the dictionary, what is your translation (翻译)? It must be a wrong sentence in your own language.

Languages do not just have different sounds. In fact, they are different in many ways. It's important to master (掌握) the rules for word order in the study of English, too. If the speaker puts words in a wrong order, the listener can't understand the speaker easily. Sometimes when the order of words in an English sentence is changed, the meaning of the sentence is quite different, but sometimes the order is changed, the meaning of the sentence doesn't change. Let's see the difference between the two sentences.

"She only likes apples."

"Only she likes apples."

When you are learning English, you must do your best to get the spirit (精神实质) of the language and use it as the English speaker does.

53. From the text, we know that _____ when we are learning English.
 A. we shouldn't put every word into our own language
 B. we should look up every word in the dictionary
 C. we need to put every word into our own language
 D. we must read word by word
54. The author thinks it is _____ in learning English.
 A. difficult to understand different sounds
 B. possible to remember the word order
 C. important to master the rules in different ways
 D. easy to master the rules for word order
55. "She only likes apples." _____
 A. is the same as "Only she likes apples."
 B. means "She likes apples a little."
 C. is different from "Only she likes apples."
 D. means "She doesn't like apples."
56. Which is the best title for this passage?
 A. Different Orders, Different Meanings
 B. How to Speak English
