阅读下面短文, 根据短文内容回答下列问题。

The year of 2022 is the Year of the Tiger. Do you like tigers? Are you ready for the Year of the Tiger?

Tigers are strong and dangerous animals. They are the kings of all the animals. For Chinese people, tigers are brave(勇敢的), strong and powerful (有力量的). That's why you can see pictures of tigers on the walls of the houses in China. People think they can protect (保护) these places away from danger. In the western countries, there are many cartoon (卡通) tigers. Please have a look.

	In South Korea, many people like tigers. They use Hodori, a cartoon tiger to be a popular mascot (吉祥物) in Olympic Games. Lots of people like to buy it for their friends because they think it is a symbol of being friendly.
	Tigers are Americans' fun friends. There is a cartoon named "Tony". He is very funny and does many interesting things. Children like him very much because he looks so cute and friendly.

There are many idioms (习语) about tiger in English. For example, Mary says, "Oh, I am afraid I can't pass (通过) the exam." If (如果) you want her to be relaxed, you can say "Easy tiger!" to her.

86. What do Chinese people think of tigers?

87. Where do people put the pictures of tigers?

88. Is Tony a real tiger in America?

89. Why do lots of people like to buy a cartoon tiger Hodori for their friends?
