As we all know, eyes are very important to us. Everyone wants to have bright eyes, but many children don't know how to protect (保护) them. Some of them watch TV too much, and others play computer games for too long. That's why more and more children must wear glasses before going to middle school. Here are some tips on how to protect our eyes.

Love our eyes. We use our eyes to see everything around us every day. When we open our eyes, we can see lovely friends and parents, beautiful flowers and green trees. If our eyes don't work, everything will be in the dark. It's like a house with no light. How important our eyes are!

Relax our eyes. First, stop to relax 30 minutes after we use the computer for an hour or two. Next, remember to do eye exercises every day. Then, looking at green trees also helps a lot. In these ways, our eyes will feel relaxed.

Have good habits. When we do our homework and read books, it is important to keep a distance of 30 cm between our eyes and books. Remember to use our eyes in a right way. Don't read in bed, in the sun or on a moving bus. Eat something healthy for eyes, such as carrots, fish and eggs.

Follow my ideas and get good habits. It's time to say goodbye to thick (厚的) glasses.

54. The writer tells us _____ ways to relax our eyes.
 A. two B. three C. four D. Five
55. What does the underlined word "distance" mean?
 A. 希望 B. 兴趣 C. 距离 D. 运气
56. From the passage, we know _____.
 A. we should protect our eyes
 B. glasses are important to students
 C. we should do exercise every day
 D. everything and everywhere is dark

When I looked at the grade on my math paper, I was shocked at (震惊) a big "65" on it. As a good student in my teachers' eyes, I never got such a terrible grade before. I was very afraid, so I lied (说谎) to my dad when I got home. I told him I got 85 and the report (报告) wouldn't come until the end of the month. Dad smiled because he never thought his daughter would lie to him.

A month later, Dad asked me again about the report at the dinner table. He looked right into my eyes and asked for an answer. Having no other way, I told him that I had just 65 in my math exam. I told a lie because I didn't want to let him down. For a long time, he just looked at me. Later, Dad said, "You have already let me down, with your lie. I am not sad at your math grade. That is no big deal. No one can be the best all the time. However, I am very sorry for you. If you can't be honest (诚实的) with your dad, who can you be honest with? It's easy to get a good grade but hard to let others believe in you again."

Dad's words moved me. I took out the report, gave it to him and said sorry to him. My father smiled and said, "I'm glad you understand that." After that, I know that my honesty is not only important to myself, but also to the people around me.

57. What can we learn about the writer from the first paragraph?

- A. She usually got terrible grades.
- B. She never got such a bad grade.
- C. She was not good at math.
- D. She was not a good student.

58. Why did the writer lie to her father?

- A. Because she liked telling lies.
- B. Because her father would beat her.
- C. Because she didn't want to let her father down.
- D. Because her father would shout at her.

59. Which is the correct order according to the passage?

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| a. I told Dad the truth. | b. I received a terrible grade. |
| c. Dad asked me again about the report. | d. I said sorry to Dad. |
| e. Dad's words touched my heart. | f. I told Dad I got 85. |
| A. b, f, c, a, e, d | B. b, f, a, c, d, e |
| C. b, c, a, d, f, e | D. b, f, d, c, e, a |

60. Which is the best title of the passage?

- | | | | |
|--------------------|-----------------|-----------------|---------------------|
| A. My father and I | B. My Happiness | C. A High Grade | D. A Special Lesson |
|--------------------|-----------------|-----------------|---------------------|
