The US, a large land with a network of roads for travel and communication, is famous for its “road culture”. But now it seems that the US has a competitor in “road culture”; Scotland. This country is much smaller than the US, but it's still big enough to have a 500-mile (more than 800 kilometers) scenic route (风景线).

The name of the route is North Coast (海岸) 500 (NC500). It's a young route, only introduced in 2015. It is one of the world's most beautiful road trips. It takes travelers who wish to drive the whole route around the coast of the north of Scotland and across the country.

But what's so special about NC500? It's the scenery (风景). It is the best to see it in spring, according to Travel magazine. During that time, travelers can enjoy sparkling lakes, remote fishing villages, and rugged mountains, white sandy beaches and a wealth of unforgettable experiences.

NC500 has greatly improved the economy (经济) along the road. The hotels and restaurants along the route are often full because the route has attracted a number of drivers. In fact, many people believe that the north of Scotland is now £ 9 million richer every year. And hopefully someday soon, people will be making movies and writing novels about NC500.

( ) 47. The writer described “road culture” in the US to _____.

Ⅶ. 任务型阅读: 阅读下面短文, 根据短文内容, 完成下列各题。(共 5 小题, 计 10 分)

Many people think that their body temperature keeps the same in normal situation. Actually, most people have a body temperature of around 37℃. Some people have a normal temperature that is a little higher, others have a normal temperature that is a little lower.

Most people’s body temperature even changes a little bit during the whole day. It’s usually a little lower in the morning and a little higher in the evening. For most kids, their body temperature stays the same from day to day until germs(细菌) go into their body.

When a fever starts, your body will get hotter than usual at first, and then you may feel very cold even though the room isn’t cold. It’s very important for you to drink much water when you have a fever, because there isn’t enough water in your body as your body gets hotter.

The fever isn’t a big problem. When you have a fever, you should have a good rest and drink much water. After a few hours, the fever may go away on its own. So many doctors agree that many people with a fever don’t need to take any special medicine unless the fever is making them very uncomfortable.

W: That sounds good. What did you do there?

M: There was a Kite Festival. We watched the great Kite Show. It was wonderful.

听第 12 段对话, 回答第 13 至 15 小题。

W: Where are you going, Greg?

M: I'm going to take the basketball class. That is an after-school class.

W: How often do you have the class?

M: Twice a week. On Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

W: Do you like this kind of class?

M: Yes, I do. I feel relaxed after exercising every time.

II. 听独白, 填信息

本题你将听到一段独白, 读两遍, 请根据独白内容, 用所听到的单词或短语完成下列各题。

I'm Jim. Yesterday morning, my alarm didn't go off, so I woke up late. It was seven thirty when I got up. I ran to the bus stop, but I still missed the bus. It was eight thirty when I finally got to school. My teacher was angry and I felt bad all day. At five thirty, it was time to go home. I was waiting for the bus when suddenly it began to rain heavily. I was wet all over because I didn't have an umbrella. What a terrible day!
