二、阅读理解 (40 分)

A

Do you have any foreign friends? Do you know their characteristics(特征)?

The Germans are very quiet and they always keep calm. They don't like to speak more words. They look very serious. They like different kinds of amusements. The Germans are very hard-working. They like tidiness, especially the women, who always keep their home clean.

In some ways, the Englishmen look the same as the Germans. They are very quiet and never talk too much with the strangers. They are really polite, so we often hear they say "Thank you." Or "Sorry." The gentlemen are also the Englishmen.

The French's holidays are very long. They like traveling and usually spend their long time staying in other countries. The Frenchmen are more outgoing than the Germans. It is very easy to make friends with them.

Compared to the Frenchmen, the Americans are more outgoing. And they are even opener than all of the Europeans. They don't like to depend on others. So it is very common that the students do part-time jobs in their free time. And in Americans' eyes, success is an important part in their life.

Character (品质), courage and confidence are words you might use to describe your heroes. These words can describe you! Take action as follows and you'll be a hero, too!

Part 1: Character

Character is something that makes you the person you are-like being honest, friendly, and helpful. See the chart (表格) below. On the left is our standard of good character. Write down your promise for each line on the right. Then, get a witness (证人) to sign it. Put it up where you'll see it every day and do your best to keep it.

To build (培养) your character	Your promise
I will do my best to... be honest and fair	eg. I'll tell the truth when non asks if I have finished my homework.
be friendly and helpful.	...
be polite and kind.	eg. I'll show good manners in class.
be courageous and strong.	...

Part 2: Courage

Of course it's going to take a lot of courage to keep your promise. Courage is challenging yourself to do something even though you think it might be hard. For each promise, find out two or three ways to help you keep it. For example, if you think that Being Honest is the hardest promise for you to keep, one of the ways might be "Tell people about my promise so that I won't break it".

Part 3: Confidence

Confidence is believing that you have the skills to do something. Do you have a beautiful singing voice? Are you a good painter? These are all talents that can make you feel good, as well as the people around you. Once you've decided what your special skill is, think about how you can use your skill to make your corner of the world a better place. If you're good at art, try painting a picture on an old wall in your school (of course, make sure you're allowed).

- () 31. According to the writer, what is needed to be a hero?
 A. Believe in yourself. B. Be full of courage.
 C. Have good character. D. All of the above.
- () 32. If your promise is "I'll show good manners in class", you're trying to be _____.
 A. smart B. polite C. brave D. strong
- () 33. What is the most important thing to build your character?
 A. Fill in the chart carefully. B. Write down your promise.
 C. Look at your promise every day. D. Do your best to keep your promise.
- () 34. The word "talents" in Part 3 can be replaced (替换) by "_____".
 A. ways B. ideas C. skills D. words
- () 35. What can we learn from the passage?
 A. Only a good painter can have confidence.
 B. It'll take a lot of courage to make your promise.
 C. Character is something that makes you feel good.
 D. You can build your character with the help of others.
