What do we do when we go camping? First, we think of a plan. We take food, clothes, a knife, and the things for cooking and eating. We take things to keep us away from insects(昆虫) and the sun. Then we put everything into the car and we drive to the woods. We look for a good place for campers(露营者) and our tent(帐篷). The place should have a lot of air. This will keep some insects away. High land with water on both sides of it is good. Then we put up our tent. We put everything into the tent, and we are ready for fun. We can swim in the lake, walk in the woods, climb a mountain, row a boat, or go fishing. In the evening we come back to the tent. We build a big fire because it can keep the insects away. We sit around the fire and talk. We may tell interesting stories or we may sing songs. At night we lie down on the grass. We can look up at the stars. It is a busy day, so we try to go to sleep early. Everything is dark. Everything is quiet. We hope we won't hear music from the radio in the next tent. We hope it won't rain.

56. Before going to camp we should first _____.

- D. be busy

Just like many other parts of Australia, the Lake Tyers region(泰尔斯湖地区) suffers(遭受) from wildfires(野火). But this part is different from others because of its fire team—the firefighters(消防队员) are all women.

Charmaine is the leader of the team. About twenty years ago, a house in Lake Tyers caught fire(着火). It was burned down because there was no fire team nearby. Charmaine and her two friends hope to protect(保护) their own land by themselves. They start knocking on their neighbors' doors to look for teammates(队友). Five other women join them. Together they ask the government(政府) to give them firefighter training.

After their fire team is set up(建立), this well-trained team put out many fires. Their job is not only to protect people and houses, but also to save(拯救) their own history. They help to find hundreds of old artifacts(文物) on their land.

“When we first set up the team, some people call us the Banana Women,” Charmaine said, “Because we wear bright yellow uniforms(制服).” They like the name so much that they keep calling themselves this name. They are the bravest(勇敢) “Banana Women” in Australia!

61. Why is the all-women fire team set up?

- A. Because women don't have things to do.
- B. Because a house in Lake Tyers catches fire.
- C. Because the Lake Tyers region suffers from wildfires.
- D. Because Charmaine and her friends want to protect their land.
