IX. 任务型阅读。(共 5 小题;每小题 2 分,满分 10 分)

阅读下面短文,按要求完成 66~70 题。

In my mind, China's "Double Reduction" Policy ("双减"政策) is to reduce pressure (减轻压力) on parents and children. Now take my home as an example to show how it works.

"Dad! Get up! You say you are going to take us to the zoo today!" My two daughters shouted together last Saturday morning. It was just seven, but our house got noisier than the monkeys in the zoo!

For families with children, weekends become very different now. In the past, my wife and I could at least sleep for a long time before we had to wake up the kids at 9 o'clock. After sending them to a tutoring class (辅导班), we could enjoy ourselves for several hours. But now, these classes die. Kids, of course, are happy about this. Every Tuesday or Wednesday evening, my girls would ask me, "Where are we going to spend this coming Saturday?"

Luckily, there are still some classes for them to join. On Sundays, my girls go to learn dance and chess. They really enjoy their time there. My elder daughter can read quietly herself. On lucky days, we can get her to read together with her sister. Still, a quiet "competition" is on. My girls sometimes talk about how their classmates spent an exciting weekend. It's their way of saying I am lazy.

Weekends are more tiring (累的) now for parents, but I think they are good for kids. After all, childhood (童年) should be more than just studying school subjects. It should be more colorful.

66 题完成句子; 67、68 题简略回答问题; 69 题找出并写下第三段的主题句; 70 题将文中画线句子译成汉语。
