【World Elephant Day】 August 12

Elephants' long ivories make them look strong. But their beautiful ivories bring them bad luck. People kill elephants for their ivories. Do you ever have your teeth pulled out? It's very painful (痛的). It's even more painful for an elephant to lose their ivories.

Elephants use their ivories to fight, cut things, dig (挖) for water. But humans use the ivories to make things they want. In fact, humans don't really need the ivories. Only the elephants need them.

【World Rhino (犀牛) Day】 September 22

Do you know Sudan? He was the world's last male (雄性的) northern white rhino. But he died in March 2018. Now there are only two northern white rhinos in the world. They are Sudan's daughter and granddaughter. Both of them are female (雌性的). There is no new northern white rhinos now.

About 60 years ago, there were more than 2,000 northern white rhinos in Africa. But the number dropped (下降) very quickly. People killed the rhinos for their horns (角). Then they sold the horns for money.

Animals are our friends, so let's stop killing them.

53. Elephant's long ivories _____.
A. make them look smart B. bring them bad luck
C. make them so happy D. bring them more food
54. The underlined expression "pulled out" means "_____".
A. 洁净 B. 修补 C. 拔出 D. 美白
55. There is no new northern white rhinos now because _____.
A. two northern white rhinos are both female.
B. Sudan loves his daughter and granddaughter.
C. there is only a male northern white rhino.
D. Sudan was killed by people in March 2018.
56. What can we learn from the passage?
A. We should have more World Animal Days to remember the animals.
B. We should stop killing because to save animals is to save ourselves.
C. We should return the elephants' ivories to make them look strong.
D. We should try our best to sell the horns of the northern white rhinos .

Dear Dr. Know,

I feel different these days. Because of the COVID-19 (新冠), I have to stay at home for quite a long time. And I don't want to talk much. I just feel bored and a little sad. What can I do, Dr. Know?

Ella Green , Boston

Dear Ella,

I know how you feel. When the COVID-19 happened (发生), many people might feel like this. Now I will tell you what to do .

First, stay with your bad feelings. ▲. Sometimes your friends and parents can also have bad feelings. Stay with this first and then you can find ways to do with it.

Second, let your bad feelings out. When you feel unhappy, you can find some good ways to let them out. You can talk to your parents or friends in a nice way. You can write about your feelings in your diary (日记) or read your favorite books. Also, you can play sports or listen to music .

Finally, set a new goal (树立目标). Remember that bad things will be over. No matter (无论) what makes you feel bad, it will go away at last. So you can set a new goal like learning to play the guitar. Remembering this will help you feel well.

Good luck.

Dr. Know
