Dear Mom,

I want to tell you something about my school. I think I have some trouble in my school. I'm often late for school because I can't get up early. I love listening to music, but my teacher takes my CD away. Because I can't listen to music in the classroom. I feel so angry about it. What's more, I'm not good at drawing. Though I know many pictures are beautiful, I can't draw them well. I hate it. My art teacher is strict with me. I can't stand it. What should I do?

Yours,

Bob

第三节

听下面一篇短文。按照你所听内容的先后顺序将下列图片排序。短文读两遍。

Hello, I'm John. I'm fifteen years old. I like watching TV in my free time. Some TV programmes are really interesting, and I usually watch TV for about one hour every day. I like sports very much. Playing sports makes me healthy and relaxed. I love sports shows best because they bring me a lot of fun. I also like documentaries. They're educational and I can learn a lot about nature, history and real-life events from them. Sometimes I watch talk shows. They're very interesting. I can't stand cartoons. I think they're boring and meaningless, but my sister Mary likes them very much. Tom and Jerry is her favorite, though there's not much dialogue in it. On Sundays, I often watch game shows. I hope one day I can take part in one of them, answer all the questions and win a big prize.

书面表达

One Possible Version:

Dear Mr. Li,

I'm writing to you to consider me as the president of our Student Union. I think I have many good qualities for it. I am very confident. I'm never afraid of speaking in public. I have strong confidence to do it well. I am so organized that I can organize everything in good orders. And I'm also friendly and helpful. I always think we should help others who are in need. Because I know helping others is helping myself. And the more important is I am an energetic boy. I'm always ready to take on new challenges which I meet anytime. Both my teachers and classmates say I can work well. I really think so.

I believe I can be a good president if I am chosen. Thank you for your time.

Yours sincerely,
Wei Ming
