七、课内语篇填空。(10分)

Students these days often have a lot of worries. Sometimes they 1 their schoolwork, and sometimes with their friends. Some people believe the worst thing is to do nothing. Laura Mills, a 2 from London, agrees. "Problems and worries are 3 in life," says Laura. "But I think talking to someone helps a lot. Unless we talk to someone, we'll certainly feel worse."

She even walked three miles to school each day because she didn't have any money. She just 5, "If I tell my parents, they'll be angry!" 6, she talked to her parents and they were really understanding. Her dad said he sometimes 7 himself. They got her a new wallet and asked her to be more careful. "I will always remember to share my problems in the future!" Laura said.

Robert Hunt advises students about common problems. He feels the same way as Laura. "It is best not to 8 our problems. We should always try to solve them." He thinks the first step is to find someone you 9 to talk to. This person doesn't need to be an expert like himself. Students often forget that their parents have more experience, and are always there to help them. In English, we say that sharing a problem is like cutting it in half. So you're halfway to 10 a problem just by talking to someone about it!
