IX. 任务型阅读。(共 5 小题,每小题 2 分。计 10 分)

Campbell Remess is a teenager from Australia. He makes teddy bears for sick children for several years.

The story began in 2013 when Campbell was nine years old. He wanted to give gifts to children in hospitals. But he didn't have enough money. The little boy didn't give up. He decided to make their presents by himself.

Campbell made his first teddy bear in his bedroom. It was hard for him. He learned from the Internet by watching videos. It took him five hours to finish his first teddy bear. He can now make a teddy bear in an hour. He also started a project called "Project 365 by Campbell". He tried to make a teddy bear every day.

Young Campbell uses his own money to buy things for making teddy bears. To make more money, he helps his parents with housework. Sometimes, he also sells his teddy bears online to raise money for sick children. Many people give free materials(材料) to him.

Campbell gave away about 1,300 teddy bears. He is now busy making this year's teddy bears. He never thinks of stopping and he will keep putting smiles on people's faces.
