B

Hi! My name is Adam and I'm a freshman at senior high school. Going from junior high school to senior high school is a really big challenge. The first week was a little confusing.

First, I had to think very carefully about which courses I wanted to take. The school adviser helped me choose the suitable ones: maths, English, chemistry, world history, and Chinese. I know that Chinese is a very difficult language, but I hope to be fluent when I graduate. My adviser recommended that I should sign up for advanced literature because I like English and I'm good at it.

I had to choose extra-curricular(课程的) activities, too. I tried to join the school football team, but the coach told me that I didn't play well enough. Obviously, I was unhappy, but I won't quit. I'll find a way to improve on my own so that I can make the team next year. I joined a volunteer club instead. Every Wednesday, we work at a soup kitchen and hand out food to homeless people in the community.

I know I'll have to study harder as a senior high school student and get used to being responsible for a lot more. I'm a bit worried about keeping up with the other students in my advanced course, and it'll be quite difficult to get used to all the homework. Still, I'm happy to be here. Studying hard isn't always fun, but I'll be well prepared for university or whatever else comes in the future.

44. How was Adam's first week at senior high school?
A. Exciting. B. Fresh. C. Confusing.
45. What's the first thing that Adam had to do when he entered his senior high school?
A. Chose his courses.
B. Visit his teachers.
C. Joined the school football team.
46. What does Adam do every Wednesday after school?
A. Practices football.
B. Does some volunteer jobs.
C. Hang out with his friends.
47. What does the last paragraph tell us?
A. Adam wants to give up his study.
B. Adam is hopeful for his senior high school.
C. Adam doesn't want to go to the university.

C

Mike talked about his article with a professor while they were walking around. As they went along, they saw there was an old coat and a pair of old shoes on the road.

Mike turned to the professor, saying, "Let's hide the shoes and wait to see how embarrassed the owner will be when he cannot find them." The professor thought for a while and said, "How about putting a coin into each shoe? And we can see how the discovery affects him."

Mike did so. They both placed themselves behind the trees close by. After a while, a man came to the road where he had left his coat and shoes. It seemed the man had just finished his work. While putting his foot into one of his shoes, he felt something hard. He looked into the shoe and found the coin. He watched the coin carefully, turned it over, and looked at it again and again. He then looked around him on all sides but no person was to be seen.

He put the coin into his pocket and continued to put on the other shoe. His surprise was doubled on finding the other coin. He fell upon his knees, looked up at the sky and shouted aloud to thank the unknown helping hand which would save his sick wife and hungry children

Mike stood there deeply affected. He said to the professor, " You have taught me a lesson which I will never forget. "

D

Reyes Guana, 42, grew up in a poor Mexican family. He has seven brothers and sisters. His parents always had two jobs to make ends meet.

As a boy, Guana had a good relationship with the school cleaner. He called her "Nike" because she wore Nike shoes. The boy liked how Nike made everything clean. He told her he wanted to be a cleaner, too. "Well, it's good if you want to be a cleaner," Nike told little Guana. "But make sure you must go to college. "

Guana also looked up to the principal( 校长 ) of his school. The school leader told the boy that his job was to help students and teachers. "Wow, when I grow up, I want to do what you're doing," Guana told him. "Well, if you stick to your dream, you will. " the principal replied.

And Guana really got there. But it was quite a long journey for him. Twenty - three years ago he followed in Nike's footsteps and was cleaning schools. He worked at three schools to pay for his college education. He held that job for four years and then worked his way up to being a school safety monitor. After that, he worked as a teacher for a few years.

Now, as a principal, Guana never forgets where he came from. He helps students from poor families and shows respect( 尊重 ) for every school staff member. He always invites everyone to school parties, including those who clean the floors and those who drive the school buses.

52. Why did Guana want to be a cleaner when he was young?
 A. Because he did well in cleaning.
 B. Because he admired the cleaner called "Nike" a lot.
 C. Because he wanted to make money for his college education.

Lewis is a wild elephant. He lives in the Samburu National Reserve(保护区) in Kenya, a country in Africa. Lewis uses his legs to walk and his eyes to look for food. 56

African elephants are endangered. 57 To protect them, there are nature reserves like Samburu. They give the animals a safe place to live.

Protecting huge animals can be hard. Elephants need a lot of food. 58 It's hard to find space that is large enough and has enough food for them. Many smaller animals share the 64 - square - mile reserve. They need less food than Lewis. They find enough food to eat in Samburu. Unlike Lewis, they don't walk into unsafe places.

A group called Save the Elephants Foundation is working to help elephants. 59 Maybe then they could keep them safe in Samburu.

The group put special collars(颈圈) around the necks of some elephants. 60 Scientists learned that Lewis often left the reserve during the dry season. When there was little rain, he couldn't find enough to eat. He learned to find delicious crops at a farm. This information will help Lewis. Scientists can give him food during the dry season.

- A. He uses his trunk to catch food.
B. African elephants are bad for our environment.
C. They eat about 220 to 440 pounds of plants every day.
D. That means the number of elephants is very low in some places.
E. Each collar had a special part that lets a satellite(卫星) track the elephant.
F. Scientists wanted to find out what makes elephants walk into unsafe places.

第六大题 任务型阅读(共5小题;每小题2分,满分10分)

Have you ever heard of grandma sharing? Organized by community workers, some empty-nesters (空巢老人) turned into shared grandmas in Chongqing. They volunteered to help neighbors pick up more than 20 primary school students from school and worked with some college volunteers to look after these children after school. It is reported that the "Grandma Sharing" project was started in 2019. And it is liked by many people.

Different from other sharing economy (经济) projects, grandma sharing is full of warmth and kindness. The shared grandmas treat the children as their own grandchildren. And they feel really happy when the children call them grandma. In fact, this project is good for both the old and the young. On the one hand, it makes the life of empty-nesters more interesting. On the other hand, it brings warmth and love to the children whose parents are busy working. Some children have to go back home alone after school. It's not safe. And these children may feel lonely at home.

Thanks to Grandma Sharing project, now the children can be picked up by shared grandmas. They can stay together after school. They can also make friends with each other.

Spending some time each day may seem like a small thing, but it can make a big difference. In the past few years, life of empty-nesters and childcare in many families have brought much trouble. It's difficult to find good way to solve them. Grandma Sharing project encourages people to help and support each other. This mutual help can create a warm and loving society.
