19、 Apple products are more and more popular in the world. Its nice design and good applications are attractive to the students. However, in my opinion, as a middle school student, one should not buy an iphone. First of all, the price of an iphone is way higher than a normal handphone. One should not spend his parents' money in buying such an expensive thing, especialy to a middle school student. In addition, middle school students should spend more time on their study. Iphone is a distraction to a teenager, as its applications are more attractive than the school work to a teenage student. All in all, a middle school student should not buy an iphone
