参考范文:

I am a big fan of science. Months ago, I wanted to make a model plane. At first, I thought it was easy. But during the process, I ran into many difficulties. Luckily, my science teacher helped me a lot and she advised me to search online and do a lot of reading. Finally, after two weeks' hard work, my model plane could fly for two minutes.

Now I know if you want to create or invent something, you must increase your knowledge first. Or you can be hardly successful.
