W: I want to buy a necklace.

M: Necklace? I don't think teenagers should be allowed to wear necklaces.

W: I want to buy a new coat, too. My old one is worn out.

M: OK, but not tonight. You can go out tomorrow afternoon.

W: Well, then I have to do my homework this evening.

M: Don't stay up late. You should go to bed early. Young people need enough sleep

III. 短文理解

There have been many inventions, large and small in human history, which changed the way we live.

In the second half of the 19th century, many great inventions were made. Among them were the camera, the light and the radio. These all become a big part of our life today.

At the end of the 19th century, zippers were invented, which are widely used in our daily lives. The first part of the 20th century saw many great inventions. For example, movies with sound and planes.

One of the most important inventions in the 20th century is the computer. It has been changing all our lives since then.

IV. 信息转换

If someone asks me, "Do you like music?" I'm sure I will answer him or her, "Of course, I do. "Because I think music is an important part of our lives.

Different people have different ideas about music. For me, I like rock music because it is so exciting. And my favorite rock band, the Foxy Ladies, is one of the most famous rock bands in the world. My classmate Li Lan loves dance music, because she enjoys dancing. She has been a dance teacher for three years. My best friend, Jane, likes jazz. She thinks it can make her calm and relaxed.

"I like dance music and rock music very much, "says my brother, "because they are amazing. 'But my mother thinks rock music is boring. "I like some light music, "she says. That's why she likes country music, I think.
