Many people go to different countries and live in different places in lifetime. In different countries, they may meet with different manners. Sometimes they are puzzled by the different manners, and maybe they make a joke about those manners. So when we go to a strange country, we should pay attention to something new or dissimilar. There are a few table manners we should try to follow in some western countries.

● Put the napkin (餐巾) on your lap. This protects your clothes from food or is used to wipe your hands or mouth when necessary.

● Hold the knife in your right hand and the fork in your left hand, and cut the meat or fish into pieces as you eat. Always use your fork to put food into your mouth. Use your spoon only for soup or other liquids (液体).

● Don't put your own utensils (fork, knife, spoon) into the serving bowl (公用碗). Use the utensil in the bowl to put some of the food on your own plate, and then return the serving utensil to the bowl.

● Don't spit (吐) food anywhere. If you have bones (骨头) in your mouth, take them out with your fingers and place them on the edge (边缘) of your plate, never on the table or floor.

● Don't reach across the table or in front of another person. Ask someone to pass whatever you want.

- () 39. The underlined word "puzzled" means ____.

A. 迷惑的 B. 担心的 C. 好奇的

There's a new art club, which started last week in my neighborhood. 44 I like them all, but I can't join all the three at the same time. I have more interest in drawing, but I have never had the chance to learn it. So I made my own decision and expressed my strong wish to learn drawing to my parents. 45 However, my mother worried that learning to draw would get in the way of my study.

46 The first rule: I must finish my homework on time every day. The second rule: don't talk back to my teacher. 47 The third rule: don't give up. Because learning drawing is not an easy thing. At first, I felt the rules were boring. 48 I would follow the rules. I won't regret joining the art club, and I must stick to it no matter how tiring it is.

- A.I have to get along well with my teacher.
- B.But later I found they were so important .
- C.There are three kinds of activities:drawing,singing and dancing.
- D.Finally my mother said she would agree if I followed the rules she made for me.
- E.I didn't like these rules at all.

Mr. Li is a scientist in Sunshine Town. His work always takes up most of his time and he has little time to relax. So he bought himself a robot.

The robot brought Mr. Li's life a lot of good things. When he got up in the morning, breakfast was ready. The robot also ironed (熨) his clothes, and made a lunch box for him.

When Mr. Li was at work, the robot would do all the housework, such as doing the dishes, washing the clothes, cleaning the house and making the bed. It went shopping at the supermarket, too.

When Mr. Li returned home from work, his house would be clean and looked as good as new, and a delicious meal would be ready for him. After dinner, the robot would clean all the dishes. Then, Mr. Li would just relax, watch his favorite TV program and read some books. Mr. Li was very happy with his robot.

After a few comfortable weeks, however, the robot caught a virus(病毒). And things started to go wrong. It sometimes woke Mr. Li up at four o'clock and sometimes at ten in the morning. When Mr. Li got home, he would find that things were in the wrong places. Food was on the bed, clothes were in the bookcase, books were on the TV... Also, the robot moved fast and often knocked things over. Mr. Li did not know what to do with the robot. In the end, Mr. Li decides to return the robot to the robot shop.

Robots can make your life easier and bring problems as well.

Many of us spend time around areas of water, whether it's visits to the beach, going for walks by rivers and lakes or swimming in a pool. However, life is full of the unexpected. If you see someone in trouble in the water, do you know what the best way to help them is?

Lifesaving course

A lifesaving course teaches you what to do if there's danger in the water. It shows you how to help a person in trouble and how to be confident (自信的) when you are around water. It teaches you valuable skills such as first aid and how to use open - water throw bags and life rings. It doesn't matter how old you are.

Mary

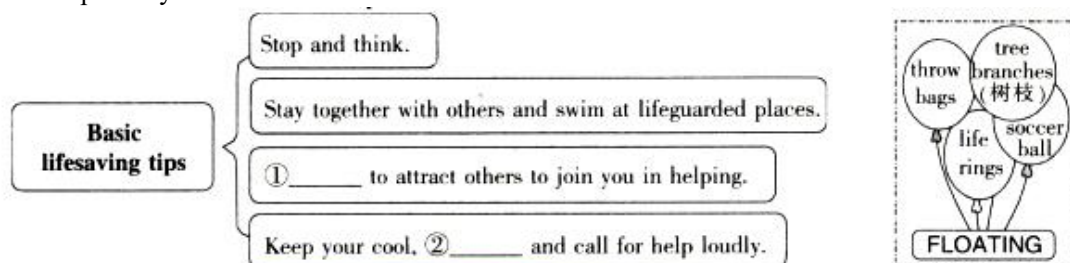

I have taken my lifesaving course for three years. We meet at our center every Saturday.

I'm confident I can help others, but I'm nervous about who could save me.

RLSS

The Royal Life Saving Society (RLSS) in the UK organizes lifesaving courses. It has a water - safety program for children aged between 8 and 12. The program teaches them things in a swimming pool, such as how to help a person in need and how to swim.

Here are some lifesaving basic tips (建议) about water safety. First, when around water, "stop and think" before going into water. Second, always "stay together" with friends or family and swim at a lifeguarded (救生员的) place. Third, in open - water areas shout loudly to attract (吸引) others to help and throw a floating (漂浮的) object for the person to hold onto. Fourth, if you are the person in trouble, keep your cool, float on your back and call for help loudly.

54. Please translate the underlined sentence into Chinese.

55. How long has Mary taken a lifesaving course?

56. What does the underlined word "them" refer to (指的是)?

57. If your friend is in trouble in open - water areas, what objects can you throw to him or her? (Please list two examples)

58. Please complete the chart. ① _____ ② _____
