第一节 阅读判断 (共5小题, 每小题2分, 共计10分)

阅读短文, 判断下列句子是否符合短文内容。符合的选T, 不符合的选F。

Now, there are more and more food-deliverymen (外卖送餐员) around us. They often drive a motorbike. And most of them are always in a hurry. Some of them often break traffic rules. They drive fast on the road and run red lights. Some even make calls when driving. In 2021, the food deliverymen had 176 traffic accidents in Shanghai, according to Xinhua Newspaper.

Why are they always in such a hurry and some even put themselves into such danger? Many food delivery companies (公司) have many strict rules for them. For example, many companies will fine (罚款) a deliveryman if he can't deliver an order on time. Also, many of them wish to take more orders and make more money.

To keep safety, food delivery service companies need to do something. At the same time, we wish companies and people can give deliverymen more time on the street.

This year marks the 89th anniversary (周年纪念) of the victory (胜利) of a world-famous march—the Red Army's Long March (红军长征) of 25, 000 li (12, 500 kilometers) .

In October 1934, the Red Army lost after Kuomintang's fifth attack (攻击) . They decided to move to a safer place. There, they could keep fighting against Kuomintang and the Japanese invaders (侵略者) . The number 25, 000 stands for the longest distance the Central Red Army walked. In October 1936, the Long March came to an end.

Along the way, soldiers went through unimaginable difficulties. They had to fight and survive in a difficult environment. In Sichuan, they had to cross the Luding Bridge in the middle of gunfire. They also climbed over snow-capped Jiayin Mountain (more than 4, 000 meters high) . They didn't have enough food or clothes. Many soldiers died. In the Central Red Army, about 86, 000 soldiers took part in the march. Only 7, 000 made it to the end.

Nowadays, President Xi Jinping calls the Long March a "miracle". He says that we should carry on "the Long March spirit": working hard, believing in communism (共产主义) and the final victory of China's revolution (革命) .

- () 56. Why did the Red Army start the Long March?
 A. To let more people join in.
 B. To attack Kuomintang.
