M: Jane, the coffee here tastes good.

W: It depends on what you like, Henry. If you want the best service, that's Uncle John's.

M: What about the food? Does it serve nice food?

Hi, Frank! This is Amy. Today is my birthday. I called you up, but nobody answered the phone. I wanted to invite you to my birthday meal today. I am shopping with Lucy and Lily now. Then we'll have a big meal at Summer House. Please join us at lunch time if you can. We'll meet in the restaurant at 11:30 a.m. There will be a lot of friends, too. Oh, one more thing, we're going to the park together after the meal. The park is near the restaurant, so we don't have to walk very far. At the park, we will fly kites and take some photos. I really hope you can join us. It will be a wonderful afternoon.

Hello, everyone! I am Liu Jun. Here are my resolutions for the new term. The first resolution is to get more exercise. Running is good for health, so I decide to run for half an hour every day. My second resolution is about English learning. To improve my English, I am going to keep a diary in English. In this way, I can practice my writing. As for my third resolution, I am going to learn to cook. I plan to read some books about cooking and cook for my family on weekends. I think this will make them happy. I believe my life will be more meaningful next term.

Thanks!
