The Albanians don't call their country Albania. Their word for their beautiful country means "Home of Eagles (老鹰)" and it shows how it looks.

After reading some reports about Albania, like its history, culture (文化) and nature (自然), my parents and I have a great interest in this country—its beautiful nature and kind people.

Our first stop was in the Albanian Riviera. From the window of the hotel, we could see a garden of pears and apples, the hills (小山) and the sea.

Our next stop was the old Ottoman town of Gjirokaster. As a world place of interest, the town is on a hill. The streets and many houses with different kinds brought you peace (安宁).

We then went into the countryside and went past an old city. Then we arrived at our destination—Pogradec. This is a small town for walking in the evening. People spend summer nights here and walk around the water.

Our last drive was back to the capital Tirana. We would love to visit Hoxha-tourism in our last days and learn something from history museums and art museums.
