W: Let's meet at 2 o'clock tomorrow.

Q: How many people are going to climb the mountains tomorrow?

10. M: I have so many rules at my house.

W: I'm going to take some exams next month and I'm really worried about them.

M: Don't worry so much. Study hard and you'll surely do it well. Relax yourself and try to share your feelings with your parents.

W: I can't eat or sleep well, either. I just keep thinking about how badly I'll do.

M: Eat healthier food every day. And don't drink too much coffee or tea because you won't probably fall asleep. You could drink a glass of milk before going to bed.

W: Thanks for your advice. I'll have a try.

M: No problem. Good luck!

W: You know, our Animal Club plans to buy some food for the homeless animals. Would you like to give some money?

M: I'd love to. But I just gave twenty yuan to the Environment Protection Club this Monday. And I don't have much money now.

W: That's OK. I will ask someone else.

M: Why not ask Jack? He usually has much pocket money. Last month he gave forty yuan to the Sports Club.

W: That's a good idea.
