X. One possible version:

As we know, our habits have a great influence on ourselves. Now let me tell you my habits. Everyone has good and bad habits. So do I.

I get up very early and I never stay up late. I like sports, so I often take some exercise every day. I also study very hard. In class, I listen to the teachers carefully and always take notes. After class, I do my homework very carefully. I read a lot of books in my spare time.

However, I get into the bad habit of playing computer games for too long. And I seldom help my parents with housework and I like eating junk food. Sometimes, I even tell some lies. I know it's not right.

Good habits are good for our whole life. I think I will develop good habits instead of bad ones.
