During ancient times, children didn't have smart phone, iPad or computer to entertain them. Instead, they came up with interesting games to play in their childhood. Let's take a look.

Kicking stone balls: During the Qing Dynasty, kicking a stone ball around was a popular game in the northern part of China, and it was often played in winter to keep warm.

Playing hide-and-seek (捉迷藏): Hide-and-seek is a traditional game for children, popular around the country. There are two ways to play—covering a child's eyes while other kids run around to tease him, or others hide and a child must try to find them.

Flying kites: Kites have quite a long history. The earliest kites were made of wood, instead of paper. The three most famous kites are the Beijing kite, Tianjin kite and Weifang kite. Each has its own feather (特征). For example, the bird-shaped kite with long wings is a special kind of the Beijing kite.

Watching shadow plays (皮影戏): The closest thing to watching a film during ancient times was going to see a shadow play. The artist control puppets (木偶) behind the screen and tell stories with the music.

46. According to the text, the game of kicking a stone ball was _____.

- A. played in summer B. invented in Beijing C. popular in north China

47. How is the hide-and-seek usually played?

- A. One plays and others watch. B. Others hide and one tries to find.
C. One runs and others try to catch.

48. The underlined word “tease” probably means _____.

- A. play a trick on B. laugh at C. catch up

49. If you see a bird-shaped kite with long wings, you may know that it is a _____.

- A. Beijing kite B. Tianjin kite C. Weifang kite

50. Which ancient game is like watching a film?

- A. Flying kites. B. Playing hide-and-seek. C. Watching shadow plays.

Every school has its own set of rules to keep students disciplined (遵守纪律的). The rules change from one school to another. Some schools are much stricter than others. There are also some rules that look strange or funny to us. Here are some funny school rules.

In Japan, most schools ask students to wear uniforms, such as sports suits or skirts. But many Japanese schools even regulate (规定) the color of socks and shoes! They also demand that girls' white socks be folded in a certain way. And Japanese schools also tell students that they may not hang out, go to movies, leave home after sunset or play video games without permission from the school.

In America, for safety at some schools, students must have a pair of indoor shoes to change into at school every day. This makes sure students won't fall over on the wet floors and keeps the schools clean. Gum (口香糖) chewing is not allowed in many US school buildings, as it is difficult to clean up. And if students chew gum in class, it is unfair for the others who don't.

In Britain, strange hairstyles are not allowed in some schools. But they might allow students to wear certain hairstyles during the World Cup years. Two students had a special design shaved into their hair during 2022 World Cup. But they were not accepted by their school after that because the school said the rules had changed since then.

51. What is the passage mainly talks about?
- A. How foreign students get used to their school rules.
B. How strange some foreign school rules are.
C. How important school rules become.
52. In Japan, what do many schools not allow their students to do?
- A. Cut their hair. B. Wear sports suits at home. C. Hang out without permission.
53. Why can't students chew gum in many US school?
- A. Because it is hard to clean up. B. Because they may make too much noise.
C. Because they may not focus on their study.
54. In which country, students are allowed to wear certain hairstyles during the World Cup years?
- A. Brazil. B. America. C. Britain.
55. Which of the following is right?
- A. Schools in different countries may have different school rules.
B. Some school rules in the UK are not very strict.
C. School rules in Japan are better than those in the US.

Dear Zhang Hua,

Have you ever been to Thailand? It is a country in Southeast Asia. I've been in Thailand for a few days with my parents. We are here for a holiday.

Now we are staying in Bangkok. It is the capital of Thailand and it is a very interesting place to visit. Yesterday we visited some places of interest in the city. They are great! This morning we went shopping. Bangkok is a wonderful place to shop for jewelry (珠宝) and clothes. My mother bought a nice necklace (项链); my father and I bought some fashionable T-shirts.

Thailand is called "Land of Smiles" because people here are very friendly. And it's true! When we eat in the restaurants in Bangkok, the waiters are really nice and they are always smiling. Thai food is delicious, but it is sometimes a little spicy (辛辣的) for me. You can also get Chinese food here because a lot of Chinese people came to live in Bangkok many years ago. Chinese food is very good, and it isn't as spicy as Thai food. Our American food can also be found in Bangkok. However, I don't eat it. You know, I'd like to try new things when I travel.

The weather has been very hot. Yesterday it rained and got a little cooler. But today it's hot again.

Yours,
Mary

56. Why did Mary and her parents go to Thailand?
 A. To study medicine. B. To a holiday. C. To a meeting.
57. What does the underlined word “Bangkok” mean in Chinese?
 A. 孟买 B. 曼谷 C. 东京
58. Why is Thailand called “Land of Smiles”?
 A. Because people there are friendly. B. Because things there are cheap.
 C. Because the weather there is fine.
59. Which one is NOT true?
 A. Sometimes Thai food is spicy. B. Mary doesn’t like American food at all.
 C. You can try Chinese food and American food in Thailand.
60. What is the weather like in Thailand?
 A. It was cloudy yesterday. B. It is hot again today. C. It is cooler today than yesterday.

第四部分 写作技能（共三节，满分 50 分）

第一节 双向翻译（共 5 个小题；每小题 2 分，满分 10 分）

根据上下文内容，将文中划线部分译成汉语或者英语。

When I was a tiny baby crying all night, my mom sang to me and stayed by my side.

When I was tired and hungry, she gave me food and warm arms to sleep in.

When I was two running through the field, she made sure I was safe and kept me from danger.

61. When I fell and hurt myself, she gave me a hug and lifted me up.

When I was seven coughing badly, she said no ice-cream for me.

But I talked back loudly, I should be allowed to eat some! Give it to me now.

When I was nine watching scary movies, she said it’d give me awful dreams.

But I shouted back angrily. “62. 我应该被允许观看！ I’m not a baby!”

When I was a teen going out with friends, she said, “Please be back by ten!”

But I talked back again—“I should not be told what to do! I’m seventeen now!”

63. Now I’m an adult, thinking back to those times.

I coughed for days after eating that ice-cream and had scary dreams after watching that film.

64. I was late for school from staying out past ten.

I regret talking back, not listening to mom.

65. 妈妈最了解, and for me she wanted only the best!

第二节 回答问题（共 5 个小题；每小题 3 分，满分 15 分）

阅读下面的材料，然后根据材料内容回答问题。

Chinese people have been celebrating the Mid-Autumn Festival and enjoying mooncakes for centuries. Mooncakes are in the shape of a full moon on the Mid-Autumn night. They carry people’s wishes to the families they love and miss.

There are many traditional folk stories about this festival. However, most people think that the story of Chang'e is the most touching. Chang'e was Hou Yi's beautiful wife. After Hou Yi shot down the nine suns, a goddess gave him magic medicine to thank him. Whoever drank this could live forever, and Hou Yi planned to drink it with Chang'e. However, a bad man, Pang Meng, tried to steal the medicine when Hou Yi was not at home. Chang'e refused to give it to him and drank it all. She became very light and flew up to the moon. Hou Yi was so sad that he called out her name to the moon every night. One night, he found that the moon was so bright and round that he could see his wife there. He quickly laid out her favorite fruits and desserts in the garden. How he wished that Chang'e could come back.

After this, people started the tradition of admiring the moon and sharing mooncakes with their families.

66. What food do people usually enjoy on Mid-Autumn night?

67. Which story is the most touching about Mid-Autumn Day?

68. Who tried to steal the medicine?

69. What happened to Chang'e after she drank all the magic medicine?

70. How do you usually celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival?
