At Christmas time, families get together and have a big dinner. They sing Christmas carols (颂歌) and put up Christmas trees. It's also normal to give your friends and family presents.

In western countries, young children believe that Santa Claus brings presents. He flies a sled (雪橇) pulled by magical reindeer (驯鹿), and drops presents down the chimney (烟囱). Families leave carrots outside their houses for the reindeer, and a glass of sherry (雪利酒) for Santa himself (along with some biscuits – he is a little fat).
