Everyone likes spending time outdoors in spring. What do kids in the US do to enjoy the warmer months?

One thing they do is to jump on a trampoline (蹦床). The trampoline lets you jump high into the air. It is quite exciting, isn't it? Some kids like to do flips (空翻) in the air. But you need to jump safely. Sometimes you don't land where you planned to!

Another fun activity is swinging (摇摆) on a tire swing. A tire swing is a big tire — perhaps from a truck or a tractor — that is tied to a strong tree branch with a thick rope. You can swing back and forth on it, or sit in it while it spins (旋转). It's an old-fashioned activity, but most of kids still enjoy this kind of activity.
