参考范文:

My lucky day

I will always remember the date October 20, 2017. This was the luckiest day of my life. When I woke up that morning, the sky was very dark. I took the early bus as usual. As soon as I arrived at school, it started to rain very heavily. Many students were late and were all wet when they got to school. But if I could not catch the early bus, I would have been late and wet as well! Later that day, I realized that I had left my wallet at home and couldn't buy lunch. Then my friend Lisa said that she could share her lunch with me. Finally, my elder brother bought my favorite cakes for me. I was so happy!

I think that was the best day I'd had. What a lucky day!
