Fishing is my favorite sport. I often fish for hours without catching anything. Some fishermen are unlucky. Instead of catching fish, they catch rubbish. I am even less lucky. I never catch anything. After I have spent whole mornings on the river, I always go home with an empty bag. "You must give up fishing," my friends say. "It's a waste of time." But they don't realize one important thing. I'm not really interested in fishing. I am only interested in sitting in a boat and doing nothing at all.

Question No. 19. What does the speaker often catch?

Question No. 20. What's the speaker's friends' advice?

请听第二篇短文, 回答第21~25题。

Mr. Smith is a doctor in the local hospital. Last Friday, Mr. Smith was driving back home after work. He met a crying boy who sat on the road. Mr. Smith stopped his car and walked to the boy. He asked the boy why he cried. The boy said he fell down when he was running quickly on his way home. Mr. Smith found the boy's legs were hurt. So he took the boy to the hospital where he worked. He helped the boy deal with his pain. Then he called the boy's parents. The parents thanked Mr. Smith very much. Finally, they took the boy back home. On that day, Mr. Smith got home late, but he felt very happy. He was proud that he could offer help to others.

In recent years, our country has taken actions to increase the PE class. But people have different thoughts about this.

Some people think we should increase the number of the PE class. Because it will help children keep healthy and develop fighting spirit. However, some people are against the idea. They think it will take up students' study time.

For me, I am for the idea. I think that increasing the PE class is good for students. It not only helps students develop valuable spirit to overcome difficulties but also helps students have a healthy body. It's good for the all-round development of students. So we should be active in taking the PE class.
