As the saying goes, “The roses in her hand, the flavor in mine.” When we help others, we can feel happy and satisfied.

Last night, one of my neighbors said on WeChat that he wanted to borrow an English book of Grade 4. It was too late to buy one from the bookstore. As soon as my parents read this message, they asked me to lend my book to him. When I handed him the book, he was very thankful. At that moment, I felt warm and a sense of joy in my heart.

In my opinion, with love and kindness, the world changes to a better place. If everyone treats others with warmth, every place will be filled with happiness.
