One Possible Version

I think school study trips can make me relaxed and give me a lot of fun.

Last weekend, I went to a farm with my classmates. We took a bus there. When we got there, the farmer showed us around the farm. We saw many lovely animals there, like cows, horses, chickens and so on. Then some of my classmates milked a cow. Some rode a horse. And others fed chickens. After that, we picked some strawberries. They were really delicious. We also took many beautiful photos.

I think my school trip is very interesting and relaxing. I want to go there again.
