Dear Tom,

How are you doing? Do you know anything about Chinese knots(中国结)? Maybe you know nothing about them. I will tell you. In China, people usually make them with red silk, cloth and other materials. They look very beautiful in the shape of diamond(钻石), about 5 inches long and 4 inches wide. In China, these knots stand for friendship, love and good luck. People can either give them as gifts to friends or hang them in the house as decorations. I'm good at making Chinese knots. If anyone in your country wants to know more about Chinese knots, let them write to me. I will try my best to introduce our Chinese knots to anyone who is interested in Chinese culture.

Over a river there was a very narrow (窄的) bridge. One day a goat was crossing this bridge. Just at the middle of the bridge he met another goat. There was no room for them to pass.

"Go back," said one goat to the other, "there is no room for both of us."

"Why should I go back?" said the other goat. "Why should not you go back?"

"You must go back," said the first goat. "because I am stronger than you."

"You are not stronger than I," said the second goat.

"We will see about that," said the first goat, and he put down his horns (角) to fight.

"Stop!" said the second goat. "If we fight, we shall both fall into the river and be drowned. Instead I have a plan—I shall lie down, and you may walk over me."

Not everyone can always feel happy. When you don't feel good, do you want to share your feelings with others? In fact, that is a good way to make yourself feel better. 36

Pay attention to your true feelings.

You can't tell your friends how you feel if you don't know your real feelings. 37

Why not talk about your feelings?

The way a person feels inside is important. 38 But if you talk with someone who cares about you, you will always start to feel better. It doesn't mean your problems and worries go away at once, but at least he or she knows your trouble and can help you.

How to talk about your feelings?

When you know who you can talk with, you'll need to have a time and a place to talk. What can you do if you have trouble saying what's in your mind? 39 If the person doesn't understand what you mean right away, try to explain(解释) it in a different way or give an example of your worries.

You don't have to solve all the problems on your own. 40 If you do, talking about your feelings can be the first step toward getting help.

- A. Sometimes you need help.
- B. Write it down on a piece of paper instead.
- C. Before you can share them with anyone, you have to find out what feelings you have.
- D. It also helps you get closer to others.
- E. If you keep your feelings inside, it can even make you feel sick!
- F. We can share our feelings with our teachers.
- G. It's not so important to talk with others.
