Mr. Brown went to work by taxi one morning. The taxi was driving on the street when a blue car ran into it. The taxi stopped but it hit a tree on the side of the road. A policeman came over. He told the blue car to stop, but the car drove away. The policeman wrote down the number of the car. Then he asked the taxi driver some questions. Mr. Brown also answered some questions. Then he got out of the taxi. He fell and hit his head on the door in the accident. Luckily, he was not badly hurt. His office was just 500 meters away. So he walked slowly to his office. When he got there, he sat on a chair and had a cup of tea. When he looked out of the window, he saw a blue car outside his office building. "Is this the blue car?" Mr. Brown was very angry. He decided to find out whose car it was.
