Once, a fox was walking around in the dark. Unluckily, he fell into a well(水井). He tried his best to come out but he failed(失败). So he had no other way but to stay there till the next morning. The next day, a goat(山羊) came. She saw the fox. The goat asked, "What are you doing there, Mr. Fox?" The fox replied, "I came here to drink water. It is the best that I have ever tasted. Come and see for yourself."

The goat was really thirsty(口渴的), so without thinking even for a while, she jumped into the well. The water was really good, and she drank a lot. When she tried to look for a way to get out, she also found herself helpless to come out.

Then the fox said, "I have an idea. You stand on your hind(后部的) legs. I'll climb on your head and get out. Then I shall help you come out too." The goat didn't think too much and did as the fox said and helped him get out of the well.

Do you get angry when your friends sing loudly while you are working, or when your best friend does not wait for you after school?

If you do, you need to take control of your feelings and stop getting angry so easily. Getting angry with people can make you lose friends.

Gary Egeberg, an American high school teacher, has written My Feelings Are Just Like Wild Animals to help you control your feelings. It tells teenagers how to stay cool when bad things happen to them. The book says that getting angry only makes problems worse. Getting angry is not a natured(本性的) way to act. It is just a bad habit, like smoking. The book says you can control your anger easily—all you have to do is to tell yourself not to be angry.

When a baby falls over, it only cries if people are watching it. Like a baby, you should only get angry if you are sure it is the right thing to do.

The book gives many tips to help you if you get angry easily. Here are the top three:

★Keep a record. Every time you get angry, write down why you are angry. Look at it later and you will see you get angry too easily.

★Ask your friends to stop talking to you when you get angry. This will teach you not to be angry.

★Do something different. When you get angry, walk away from the problem and go somewhere else. Try to laugh!

11. The writer thinks that if you get angry easily you will _____.
A. lose your friends B. get ill very easily C. lose weight easily
12. My Feelings Are Just Like Wild Animals is a _____.
A. book B. story C. picture
13. In the fourth paragraph, the underlined word "it" refers to _____.
A. the book B. the habit C. the baby
14. According to the tips, we should _____ to stop getting angry easily.
A. write down a song B. do something different
C. ask our friends to talk to us
15. What's the best title of this passage?
A. How to keep a record B. When to stop getting angry
C. How to keep cool when you get angry

The social network(社交网络) is a lot of fun. You can chat with friends, meet different people and share your favorite things with the world. But remember that there are some dangerous things about it. And some scary people hang out there, too. The good news is that you can protect yourself. Here is some simple advice for having fun and staying safe online.

Firstly, be careful with what you've posted on the network. Never share your phone numbers and addresses(地址)online. Only allow your friends to get your information.

Secondly, remember that not everything you read online is true. Do you have these experiences online: saying something that is not true, pretending(假装)to be others, or to be older or younger? Others may do the same things.

Thirdly, if you'd like to meet someone in person(亲自), talk to your parents about it. Yeah, it's not cool. But they can try to make sure you're safe. That way, you protect yourself, and you can still have some fun.

- 1. What can we do on the social network? _____
- 2. What's the topic sentence(主题句)of the third paragraph? _____
- 3. What should we do if we want to meet someone in person? _____
- 4. 将文中划线句子译成汉语。 _____
- 5. 给文章拟一个恰当的标题。 _____
