There are rules everywhere. We have rules at school. We have rules at home. We also have rules in the street.

All of us should follow the traffic(交通) rules. We should not play on the road or on the pavement(人行道). We should stop and wait when (当.....时) we see the red light. We should walk on the zebra crossing(斑马线) when we cross the road. Before crossing the road, we should stop and look carefully. Look left and then right.

Sometimes the traffic rules are not the same. In England, traffic keeps to the left(靠左行驶). Cars, buses, bikes should keep to the left. So, when you cross a road in England, you should look right first and then left.

- 47. We can't play on the road, but we can play on the pavement.
- 48. When we see the traffic lights, we must stop and wait.
- 49. We must be careful when we cross the road.
