Just then a friend arrived and called out, "Happy Birthday!" Hearing this, the man turned and asked, "Hey, man, it's your birthday?" "Yes," I said. He walked 18, smiled and said, "Happy Birthday!" I was not 19 ready for what happened next. He took out a dollar from his dirty bag, and gave it to me, saying, "Here man, take this. Happy Birthday!" That's 20. I expected he was making a joke!

Although I 21 deeply by its generosity(慷慨), accepting money from a homeless

阅读下面三篇材料, 根据材料内容从每小题所给的 A、B、C、D 四个选项中, 选出一个最佳选项。

A

I walked into a stranger as he passed by me.

"Excuse me," I said.

He replied with a smile and said, "Please excuse me, too. I didn't notice you."

We apologized (道歉) and went for our own ways.

Later that day, when I was cooking, my daughter was standing too near. When I turned to search for some milk, I nearly knocked her over. "Move out of the way!" I shouted.

She walked away sadly. But I didn't feel like I had to apologize to her.

While I was in bed that evening, my husband said to me. "While dealing with a stranger, you were polite. But with a daughter you love, you were unkind. Your daughter brought you some flowers that she picked herself this afternoon. You will find them in the kitchen by the door. Have you seen the tears in her eyes?"

I quietly went and sat down by my daughter's bed.

"Honey, I am so sorry," I said. "Are these the flowers you picked for me?"

She said, "I found them by the tree. I picked them because they're pretty like you. I knew you'd like them, especially the blue ones."

I tearfully replied, "Sweetie, I'm really sorry for the way I acted today. I shouldn't have shouted at you."

"It's OK. I love you anyway." She said as she kissed me on my cheek.

If we can be polite to strangers, why can't we do the same for the ones we love?

B

Have you ever wanted to achieve a goal and ended up doing lots of research on how to achieve it? As you learned more and more, it seemed you knew less and less. That is because when you learned a new concept (概念), you found that there was a lot more to know about it.

Usually, people think they need to get more and more information before trying a new idea. There is nothing wrong with learning a lot, but when you let learning get in the way of doing, you will never get going.

One of the best ways to learn is to take action and learn from the results that you get from those actions. Don't be afraid of not being perfect and just take the first step. You will go further than those who are still in preparation. It's good to be prepared, but over-preparation in trying to reach a goal won't get you results. The knowledge and skills that you will need will be picked up along the way.

If a baby wants to learn how to walk, it doesn't do it by just sitting there and thinking about how to walk. The best way for a baby to walk is to actually get up and start walking.

Sure it may fall, but with every fall, it learns what is working and what is not and adjusts to it. By doing this over and over, it will finally learn to walk. This is the method you should use when you want to achieve your goals as well. It works.

Learning more is great but if all you're doing is learning and not taking action, it's time to change that. Just take the first step.

A. less                      B. nothing                      C. everything                      D. more

- ( )34. Where can we usually read the passage?

C

Good evening, everybody! Recently, many people have written to me and said it was hard for them to achieve goals in life. That's true. Maybe we can learn something from successful people about it.

Make good use of morning time. Sundar Pichai, the CEO of Google takes a hamburger, drinks tea, and catches up on the news every morning. There's nothing big about this habit, but it works for him. "I'm not a morning person, so I need my time with my paper and tea to wake up and get going," Pichai told reporters.

So take care of yourself in the morning. Do whatever you need to do to get yourself prepared for the rest of the day, whether that means going for a walk, picking up a nice cup of coffee, or taking some time to think about your life.

Keep your choices simple. We all have to make lots of decisions during the day. That's just life, but sometimes all those choices can make us feel tired. It is reported that decision fatigue is a real problem. "You can't make a lot of decisions without paying a physical price." That's why the CEO of Facebook, Mark Zuckerberg cuts off unnecessary choices from his life. Every morning, Zuckerberg puts on a "uniform", including jeans, sports shoes, and a T-shirt. In this way, the CEO can keep the decision fatigue away and make proper decisions without much more tiredness.

Well, cutting down the number of choices is a great way of setting yourself up for success. When it comes to making decisions, you should center on important goals.

I'm Annie Smith. Thanks for your listening.
