Sometimes we need to ask others the way (路线) or tell others how to go to one place. But do you know how to ask and show the way correctly (正确地)?

When you ask the way, you need to ask politely. You can say "Excuse me" and "Thank you" to the person you ask. He or she can be very happy to help you. Asking the right person is also important. The police, or the person from whom you buy things can be good. At last, be sure the person knows what you are saying. Tell the person correctly where you want to go, so he or she can show you the right way.

Well, how to show the way to others? First, use easy words. You can say "go along" or "on your left or right" to the person who needs help. Second, find some marked features (显著特征) of the place. You can tell the person "there's a river near the place". You can draw a map, too. So you can show the way easily and correctly. When you don't know the way, just say "sorry, I don't know". It's OK.

49. The writer tells us _____ pieces of advice (建议) in the second Paragraph (段落).

- A. two
- B. three.
- C. four.
- D. five.

50. You can tell others the way easily and correctly by _____.

- A. asking the right person
- B. drawing a map
- C. using simple words
- D. finding marked features

51. Which is NOT TRUE according to the passage?

- A. You need to use easy words to show the way.
- B. Saying sorry is also good for showing the way.
- C. You can only ask the way from the police.
- D. Asking correctly can help you find the way easily.

52. The passage mainly tells us _____.

- A. how to ask the way
- B. how to show the way
- C. how to use a map
- D. how to ask and show the way

C

Fast food is popular in the United States ,because for under $5. 00, you can usually get a good meal. And it is quick and easy to take.

Now fast food changes Chinese people's lifestyle so much. People's life becomes better and better. So more people in cities have money to eat outside.
